SUMMER SATURDAY

With Erin Molan & Mark Levy
Saturday from 12pm - 6pm

You're invited to Cocktails at The Cottage

The Cottage in Scone is gearing up to farewell one of the hottest summers on record with a sizzling evening of cocktails and stunning canapés.

'Flair' bartenders from Sydney are coming to town for the event on Saturday 25 February from 7pm – 11pm which will feature an oyster bar and great music. Don't miss this chance to support your community, dress up and have a night of fun with your friends. Tickets are $95 per person and include your first two cocktails. The cocktail party is just the start of a huge year of special events planned at The Cottage this year, including degustation dinners, a wine club and many more.

If a relaxed lunch is more your style, you can check out the lighter-lunch menu which includes gourmet burgers and salads from Thursday to Saturday. The restaurant is open for dinner only on Tuesday and Wednesday. The Cottage recently added, to its already impressive swag of nods, picking up recently the Australian Good Food and Travel Guides Reader's Choice Award for Newcastle & The Hunter.

Bookings are essential and can be made by calling the restaurant on 6545 1215 or online at www.thecottagescone.com/contactus

YOU'RE INVITED TO A COCKTAIL PARTY

Steel River is hero

The Hunter River is hero in a new crime-thriller, Dark Waters by local screenwriter, actor and producer, Joseph Taylor.

Dark Waters, is a neo noir visceral film where character and location rule. In just ten minutes, Dark Waters explores just how far someone will go to save himself.

Small time crim, Jimmy Moretti's ambitions are thwarted when he is arrested as an accessory to murder by local cops, Tom Hansen and Ada Wilke. Chloe Moretti has always backed her brother, right or wrong, and her seduction of Hansen is a dangerous play to secure his freedom with tragic consequences.

Newcastle city, Maitland Gaol and Wangi Wangi on Lake Macquarie are just some of the locations being used to tell this gritty crime thriller.

ADFAS presents Paul Atterbury

Image: Bomber Crew, Stella Bowen, 1944

Antiques Roadshow host Paul Atterbury will be the first guest of the year for Scone's chapter of the Australian Decorative and Fine Arts Society on Tuesday March 7.

Mr Atterbury will talk through Women War Artists. Governments employed official war artists to document those drawn into conflict. These paintings tell a story in a powerful and often poignant way. These women made a massive contribution to the story of 20th century art.

ADFAS Scone provides for its members a yearly programme of illustrated lectures given by overseas and Australian lecturers chosen for their communication skills and expert knowledge in their fields.

5:30pm for a 6pm start. Contact scone@adf.org.au.

Back to Business Week

Back to Business Week is a NSW Government initiative that celebrates small to medium businesses and promotes and supports the critical role they play in local communities.

Upper Hunter Shire Council, in partnership with the Scone Chamber of Commerce and Industry, is hosting two free "Back to Business Week" events on Thursday 2 March 2017.

At 7am all businesses are invited to attend a Chamber breakfast at the Royal Hotel in Scone. The keynote address will be a representative of Hunter Valley Meats who will provide a presentation on the current state of play and plans for the future of the business in Scone.

At 6pm all home-based businesses and small-medium businesses in the Upper Hunter Shire are invited to the Council Chambers in Scone for a networking evening. The keynote speaker will be Ms Jelinda Millgate, Regional Business Advisor of The Business Centre Newcastle Region.

"As these are our first "Back to Business Week" functions, we encourage all local small, medium and home-based businesses to come along to this and the Chamber's other networking events," said Mayor Wayne Bedgood.

Ms Millgate will be supported by Kate Murphy who is the Business Facilitator for the Hunter Region Business Enterprise Centre.

Cost for both events is free and includes a light meal.

To register for the evening event: www.eventbrite.com.au/e/back-to-business-week-home-based-business-networking-event-tickets-31818308417

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Jelinda Millgate (pictured) will address the Back to Business Week events on Thursday 2 March at the Royal Hotel in Scone.

Growth for local tourism

Recent school leavers, people with hospitality qualifications or experience, Visitor Information Centre volunteers or people whose current business links to the tourism industry are encouraged a 'Growing Local Tourism Talent' information session at Muswellbrook Regional Arts Centre on Tuesday 28 February, 2017 at 11am.

Upper Hunter Country Tourism and Muswellbrook Shire Council are partnering on the new tourism initiative which introduces participants to the local opportunities that tourism has to offer; it provides a part-qualification, work experience with a local business, and exposure to tourism activity and opportunities across the Upper Hunter. This course is also for anyone who has thought about starting a tourism or hospitality business.

The information session will also provide further information about work opportunities in the tourism industry and local study options.

For more information and expressions of interest please contact Carolyn O'Brien, Community Services Manager at Muswellbrook Shire Council on 0409 228 879.

Scholarships up for grabs

Local students are encouraged to apply for a share in $14,000 worth of scholarships with the 2017 Singleton Mayoral Scholarship Program.

Singleton Council has teamed up with Hunter Resource Recovery, Coal & Allied, Blackwoods, Yancoal and Hunter TAFE to deliver this year's program. Students can now apply for one of four scholarships of $2,000 each for long-term study or 12 scholarships of $500 each for short courses each to be awarded to residents of the Singleton local government area who are studying or intending to enrol to study in 2017 in one of the scholarship categories.

More information is available online at www.singleton.nsw.gov.au/scholarship. Applications will close on Friday 31 March 2017.

Go green in Singleton

Singleton residents can expect delivery of their new green-lid bin next week in advance of the new garden organics service commencing on 6 March.

The service is available for disposal of green waste and will be collected fortnightly from the kerbside on the opposite week to the yellow-lid recycle bins in urban areas. Residents who currently receive the weekly general waste collection service will automatically receive the new service and are not required to take any action.

Interested residents who currently receive fortnightly general waste collection must apply for the new garden organics service at singleton.nsw.gov.au/gardenorganics

Be prepared for further fires as recovery begins

Upper Hunter residents are urged to plan for dangerous weather conditions and possible fires, while fire containment continues in the west of the Shire and clean-up and recovery operations begin.

Upper Hunter Shire Council is seeking financial donations for the Upper Hunter Mayoral Bushfire Appeal to assist residents impacted by the bushfire. Donations can be made at any of Council's offices or by direct deposit: BSB: 032 619 Account: 128688 Reference: BUSHFIRE

A drop-in information centre has been opened at the Cassilis Community Hall until further notice. Representatives from Family and Community Services (FACS), Police, RMS, Local Land Services, RFS, SES, and Council are available.

Council will be offering other assistance directly to residents who have suffered loss and hardship. Council has a Rate Hardship Policy for those ratepayers requiring relief as a result of this devastating event. Council will also assist by providing free access to the Merriwa and Cassilis Waste Facilities for those residents needing to dispose of fire damaged items as a result of the bushfire.

New software maps the future

Singleton Council has launched the new online mapping service via its website to allow residents, potential residents and developers to access information about properties across the local government area through an easy-to-use and intuitive website.

The community can now choose property maps to view aerial photography, property information and suburb boundaries; planning control maps to see zonings and other planning guidelines such as heritage, height restrictions and flood planning; and bushfire prone land maps.

To access the online mapping tool, visit www.singleton.nsw.gov.au, click on Property Tools, and Online Mapping Service.

MUSWELLBROOK CINEMA MOVIE REVIEW

HIDDEN FIGURES

Rated (PG) 127 mins

As the United States raced against Russia to put a man in space, NASA found untapped talent in a group of African-American female mathematicians that served as the brains behind one of the greatest operations in U.S. history. Based on the unbelievably true life stories of three of these women, known as "human computers", we follow these women as they quickly rose the ranks of NASA alongside many of history's greatest minds specifically tasked with calculating the momentous launch of astronaut John Glenn into orbit, and guaranteeing his safe return. Dorothy Vaughan, Mary Jackson, and Katherine Johnson crossed all gender, race, and professional lines while their brilliance and desire to dream big, beyond anything ever accomplished before by the human race, firmly cemented them in U.S. history as true American heroes.

Pampering for our seniors

"Scone Neighbourhood Resource Centre is offering senior members in this community a little pampering during Seniors Week. The Centre is working in partnership with local businesses: Locks Hair Salon, Rachel's Hair & Beauty, 3Massage, Boutique Beauty by Sherryn and Karen' for Feet to give some special treatments at a special Seniors Week event to be held at the Scone Bowling Club on March 8 or calling in at Scone Neighbourhood Centre at 130 Liverpool Street," said SNRC's manager, Lee Watts.

The Scone Neighbourhood Centre will not be the only community services at the event, TransCare has organised an expo bringing a variety of services together that seniors may use or would like additional information on. The event will be held at the Scone Bowling Club, 10.00am - 2.00pm on Tuesday 8th March. Now in its 59th year, the 10-day NSW Seniors Festival runs from Friday 3 March to Sunday 12 March. The festival encourages seniors to get out, make new friends and catch up with old ones by doing more together.

Bookings are essential by phone on 6545 2562.
