Who will be the national champion?

The National Title Farrier & Blacksmith Competition sponsored by The Equine Podiatry & Lameness Centre will be held in Scone from May 5 - 7.

Craig Trnka will travel from the USA to judge the competition. Trnka is a multiple-world champion farrier and blacksmith. He travels extensively throughout the USA and the world attending competitions and offering professional advice on horseshoeing and blacksmithing.

Craig lives by two mottos: 'Everything you ever wanted to achieve is just outside your comfort zone,' and 'good judgement comes from experience. Experience comes from poor judgement.' He has already touched down in Australia and is looking forward to catching up with old friends and new before the event. Spectators are welcome to watch the open, intermediate and novice competitions; Three-man draught horse shoeing and Stud Manager Farrier Classic.

The action kicks off at 7am on May 5 at the Bookmakers Auditorium at White Park.

Launching the festival in all its glory

Scone's Kelly Street will be bursting with colour and action on Saturday May 6 when the annual Scone Horse Festival Parade takes place.

The Scone Equine Hospital Horse Festival Parade is one of the most striking demonstrations of the kindred of horse and man. Headed by veteran horsemen and marching bands, local schools, equestrian clubs and horses of all breeds, the parade is a truly remarkable showcase for the Upper Hunter horse world: a great family spectacle that fills the main street of Scone.

It starts from 10.30am, get there early to get a spot with a view.

Dogs that race like champions

Man's best friend will become our greatest entertainer when The Great Nundle Dog Race takes place again on Sunday May 7.

Canines of all shapes, sizes, purpose and obedience levels will make their way to Nundle to compete in a huge range of competitions such as the House Dog Races, Mongrel Invitation Stakes, Juvenile Canine Mini Stakes, Doggy High Jump or Stumpy's Circular Dog Derby. The main race is The Great Nundle Dog Race, which is open to bona fide working dogs only. The first race is at 10.30am

For information see nundle.com.au or call Nundle Visitor Information Outlet on (02) 6769 3026.

May events @ your library

Have you ever felt like you had to buy something just to get away from a pushy sales person?

Or have you had someone knock at your door selling something that you didn't want and you didn't know how to ask them to leave? Well don't worry as you are not alone and the law is on your side. Muswellbrook and Denman libraries are hosting NSW Fair Trading on Tuesday May 16. An expert will deliver a presentation to inform consumers of their rights and responsibilities.

The libraries will also celebrate Mother's Day in May with morning teas on Wednesday May 10. Storytime, tech and craft events are also scheduled this month.

At various locations on the Around Hermitage Wine and Food Trail, games will be set up to enhance the wine tasting experience including giant chess, giant jenga, boules, croquet, horseshoes, twister, giant pick-up sticks and totem tennis. Peter Drayton Wines will host Flickerfest on May 6 and a cheese making course for beginners will be held on May 13.
