New brochure about mental health

Singleton Mental Health Forum in conjunction with Singleton Mental Health Support Group, One Door and Singleton Council have just published a brochure which outlines the rights of designated carers along with contact information for mental health services available in Singleton.

Recent changes to the Mental Health Act allow a consumer to nominate up to two designated carers. However, it is important that people understand the nomination needs to be renewed every year, ensuring designated carers are notified if their relative or loved one is admitted to a mental health facility for treatment, if they fail to return after approved leave or if they are absent from a facility without permission.

The publication is available from Singleton Visitor Information and Enterprise Centre, Singleton Library, Singleton Youth Venue and most medical practices.

Celebrating National Simultaneous Storytime

Images: (Top) Murrurundi and Blandford children Jett, William, and Olive with Library Officer Linda Dawson. (Above) Patricia Molyneux and Year 1 students from the Scone Public School who read this year's National Simultaneous Storytime book, "The Cow Tripped Over the Moon".

Upper Hunter Shire Libraries celebrated National Simultaneous Storytime last week (Wednesday 24 May 2017) with over 200 local children attending successful events in Aberdeen, Cassilis, Merriwa, Murrurundi and Scone.

They were taking part in the 17th National Simultaneous Storytime, an annual campaign that aims to encourage more young Australians to read and enjoy Australian books.

This year's book "The Cow Tripped Over the Moon" is a tale of perseverance and getting some help from your friends. The author is Tony Wilson and the illustrator is Laura Wood.

Forty children plus several carers from Murrurundi and Blandford schools and Murrurundi Pre-School enjoyed singing, clapping, clicking and whistling as well as hearing Murrurundi Library Officer Linda Dawson read the book.

Merriwa Library had two groups attend: St Joseph's Merriwa with 15 children and five adults; Merriwa Pre-School had 17 children and six adults. The nominated book was read by Elizabeth Walter, Library Coordinator.

Approximately 110 children from Scone Public School, Scone Early Learning Centre, The Yellow Cottage, Family Day Care and the general public attended this year's event held at Scone Council Chambers. Pat Molyneux read "The Emperor's New Clothes Horse" by Tony Wilson and illustrated by Sue deGennaro, "The Playground Meanies" by Alison Reynolds and illustrated by Mikki Butterley in addition to "The Cow Tripped Over the Moon". Mrs Molyneux was ably assisted by six Year 1 students, from Scone Public School, who performed each of the scenes from the story.

June events at your library

You can rug up and learn how to make a rug at Muswellbrook Library when it holds a beginners crochet workshop on June 15.

That's just one of many activities Upper Hunter Regional Libraries has planned to keep our community busy during the month of June. You can help the Cancer Council by making a donation when you attend the Biggest Morning Tea at Muswellbrook on June 14. A special screening of the movie 'Cast from the Storm' will be held on June 22 to mark Refugee Week.

These are just some of the events planned in June, log on to www.uhrl.nsw.gov.au to find out more.

Scone becomes a Boomerang Bag community

Boomerang Bags is a community-driven initiative tackling plastic pollution at the grassroots level.

Dedicated volunteers, schools and community groups get together to make re-useable bags using recycled materials as a means to provide sustainable alternative to plastic bags. You can become part of this movement.

Sew Scone holds a community sewing bee every Tuesday. They have the fabric and just need the people to sew the bags. To find out more call 6545 1306 or 0467 055 712 or facebook Sew Scone.

A major upgrade is coming to the Scone Regional Livestock Selling Centre. Upper Hunter Shire Council has welcomed the announcement of a grant for $325,700 for the effluent management system at the saleyards' truck wash facilities.

The grant comes from a joint initiative between the NSW and Australian Governments to build and upgrade truck wash-out facilities as part of the Nationals in Government's Fixing Country Truck Washes program. Council will contribute approximately $120,000 to the project.

Mayor Wayne Bedggood said the upgrade would save money and water, and make it easier to recycle the manure.

The saleyards will operate as normal while the project is undertaken.

The upgrade will include: • Constructing a new concrete bay next to the existing truck wash bays for livestock trucks to empty their effluent tanks • Installing a solids separator to remove solids from the truck wash effluent to create a dry manure product that can be stored and sold • Constructing concrete bays for storing the solids waste • Installing rain water tanks off the existing roof to reticulate to the truck wash to reduce reliance on town water • New pumps.

Benefits of the project: • Trucks will be able to empty their effluent tanks more efficiently • Truck washing times will be reduced • Encourages more livestock transporters to install effluent tanks in their trucks, thus reducing the amount of manure on local roads • Reduced cost of water for the truck wash • Less solids entering the effluent ponds • Better utilisation of the manure because it is in a drier state that can be bagged or transported off site.

The Centre has a two bay truck wash facility which users can operate with an Avdata key. Access is limited to those who hold a current induction card.

Investing in revitalising our streetscapes

Upper Hunter Shire Council is offering financial assistance to business owners to help revitalise streetscapes in towns across the Shire. Council is offering a grant of up to $1,000 to refurbish shopfronts and a fee waiver for street furniture that uses the region's tourism brand Upper Hunter Country.

Council will waive the annual footpath trading licence fees for 2017/18 for businesses who use the Upper Hunter Country branding on their street furniture. The 'Upper Hunter Country - Come On Up!' branding could be used on outdoor umbrellas, tables, chairs, pots or A frames.

The Upper Hunter CBD Shop Front Assistance Fund is to provide one-off assistance to businesses in Aberdeen, Merriwa, Murrumbidgee and Scone central business districts (CBDs).

Mayor Wayne Bedgood said these initiatives were just some of the ways Council was working to improve Upper Hunter CBDs.

The Upper Hunter CBD Shop Front Assistance Fund Application Form and Guidelines are available on Council's website www.upperhunter.nsw.gov.au under Do It Online / Apply for It / Community Grants. Copies are also available from Council offices.

18th year for the Aberdeen Highland Games

As the weather cools down anticipation for the Upper Hunter's best Celtic event heats up, with the Aberdeen Highland Games just weeks away and getting ready for a big event now 18 years strong!

This year's Games will take place on Saturday 1st July at Jefferson Park, Aberdeen. All the usual sporting endeavours will be on show with the caber toss and other strong man events sure to draw a large crowd. The tug-of-war competition will have an extra edge this year, with the national titles being held during the event. The massed pipe bands, dancing and clan stores will all be there to contribute to the festive atmosphere. But the highlight of this fabulous production will no doubt be the appearance of Australia's Federation Guard.

Keep tuned to Up Country Entertainer and visit www.aberdeenhighlandgames.com for further information.
