The Remington boasts NSW Training Awards finalists

Big celebrations are underway at Muswellbrook's Remington Motor Inn with trainees Montana Mepham and Brittannie Dalley named as grand finalists in their respective categories at the NSW Training Awards - Hunter Region.

Both girls and their families will be attending an awards night on Friday June 16 to celebrate and await the announcement of the winners. The Remington's Duty Manager, Tamara Peterson, says the Remington staff is extremely lucky to have the pair as part of the team and are so proud of their dedication to the business and their training. The Remington is one of Muswellbrook's best motels with a fantastic restaurant serving modern Australian cuisine and great cocktails. The NSW Training Awards are conducted annually by Training Services NSW to recognise outstanding achievement in the vocational education and training sector.

The Awards honour and reward the achievements of students, trainers/teachers, training organisations, large and medium employers.

Precision performance at Aberdeen Highland Games

Australia's Federation Guard will be an extra special feature at this year's Aberdeen Highland Games. The Federation Guard is the Australian Defence Force's official tri-service ceremonial unit.

Representatives from the Australian Army, Navy and Airforce come together to form a full-time ceremonial armed forces unit. The Guard has a significant role in marking national days of significance such as Australia Day, ANZAC Day and Remembrance Day, including conducting ceremonial services in Turkey, France, Belgium and East Timor just to name a few.

The Australian Federation Guard's presence will no doubt be a stunning addition to the massed pipe bands display at Jefferson Oval, Aberdeen on July 1.

To find out more visit www.aberdeenhighlandgames.com.

Tiny Thread Treasures with Barbara Schey

Untethered fibre artist Barbara Schey will share her considerable skill with the community when she hosts a workshop at Muswellbrook Regional Arts Centre on Saturday June 17.

Participants will learn how to take a contemporary approach to time tested stitching techniques from U.K., Europe and Asia to give their work a modern twist, by creating elements which can be used in mixed media and assemblage work, as well as for jewellery. No skill levels required except the ability to thread a needle and stitch. Suitable from age 12 and beyond.

Bookings are essential. To reserve your place please contact the Arts Centre 02 6549 3800.

OUTSTANDING CONTRIBUTION: Wayne Grant of Newcastle Men's Shed with chairman of Tocal Field Days, Darren Bayley, and manager Wendy Franklin. Image is courtesy of Tocal Field Days.

Tocal Field Days held a morning tea recently to acknowledge the outstanding contribution of local community groups to this year's successful event.

Chair of Tocal Field Days and the Principal of Tocal College Mr Darren Bayley said that this year's success was due in no small part to the support of so many volunteers.

Over $32,000 was distributed this year. Also acknowledged were volunteers working across a variety of areas including Phyllis Saul who at 86 still does the mailout of all the Guide Books.

Free eSafety workshop on offer

An eSafety expert from the Office of the Children's eSafety Commissioner will be delivering a free workshop on how you can help keep young people safe online.

Participants will learn how young people are using social media and technology; how to make a complaint about cyber-bullying and how to get help removing serious cyber bullying material. The workshop will be held at Muswellbrook Library on Monday June 19 between 11am and 1pm. Please call Skye at Upper Hunter Community Services on 02 6542 3555 to secure your spot (places are limited).

A light lunch following the workshop will be provided.

MUSWELLBROOK CINEMA MOVIE REVIEW

DESPICABLE ME 3

Rated (PG) 90 mins

Gru faces off against Balthazar Bratt, a former child star who has grown up to become obsessed with the character that he played in the '80s, and gets into some sibling rivalry when he meets his long-lost charming, cheerful, and more successful twin brother Dru who wants to team up with him for one last criminal heist to steal the diamond that Bratt has stolen. Meanwhile, The Minions rebel against Gru and decide to return to villainy with their new leader, the Minion Mel.

Image: Murrurundi Community Services Officer Heather Ranclaud discusses access issues with Pat Paton and Barbara Riddell.

Upper Hunter Shire Council has put a draft Disability Inclusion Action Plan (DIAP) on public exhibition for comment until the 26 June 2017.

The final Plan will guide Council's actions over the next four years to meet the diverse needs of people with disabilities in the community.

The recommendations include improving pathways, transport options and access to buildings, creating an Inclusion and Access Committee and working closely with existing disability services.

Copies of the Plan are available on Council's website or at Council Administration Offices and Libraries. People requiring large print, braille or other versions of the document should contact Council's Manager of Community Services Kerri Cone on 6540 1141.

Comments can be sent to council@upperhunter.nsw.gov.au or to an Upper Hunter Shire Administration Office in Scone, Merriwa and Murrurundi.

Blue Heeler Film Festival closing date

Don't forget entries for the Blue Heeler Film Festival close on Monday July 31.

The Blue Heeler Film Festival is a fun annual community event held during the school holidays. It includes a short film competition to give talent from the Hunter region an opportunity to showcase their filmmaking genius to the world. The theme for this year's festival is 'Rock'. Your film should be between 1 and 7 minutes, including titles and credits. To be eligible to enter you must be a resident of any Hunter Council LGA.

For further information visit muswellbrook.nsw.gov.au/index.php/blue-heeler-film-festival/blue-heeler-film-festival

Fancy playing novelty soccer?

Looking for that fun game to give your community event an edge? Why not try soccer darts - an inflatable soccer dart board attraction.

It's the ultimate test in football accuracy and novelty soccer fun. The six soccer balls stick to the Velcro board when kicked, hit or thrown, you can also add competition with scoring each time a Velcro ball attaches to the board. The inflatable board is suitable for all ages that can kick, throw or hit 10 metres or more. The soccer darts inflatable is available to hire now from the Scone Neighbourhood Centre for $200.

For additional information or to make a booking phone 6545 2662 or email reception@snrc.com.au

READY FOR FUN: Novelty soccer is now available for hire in Scone.
