Let's help Izzy get to outer space

Aberdeen school girl Izzy Roughan (pictured right) dreams of one day becoming an astronaut. The year 12 student at St Joseph's has already visited the Space Physics Laboratory at the University of Newcastle, and now she wants to go to America to attend Space Camp. The Advanced Space Academy Program at the US Space and Rocket Centre will be an important step for her towards her goal.

"I first met Izzy Roughan at an Upper Hunter Mining Dialogue event in Muswellbrook in 2015 when I spoke with a group of students from St Joseph's High School, Aberdeen. She subsequently contacted me to ask if I could help her visit the Space Physics Laboratory at the University of Newcastle as she wanted to become an astronaut! A few months later she did in fact spend time in that lab with Professor Fred Menk. Subsequently I invited Izzy and her class to attend the Mined Land Rehabilitation Conference I was running in Singleton in April 2016. Izzy organised a team which competed with Distinction in the Hunter Valley Electric Vehicle competition in August 2016," stated Director, Tom Farrell Institute for the Environment – University of Newcastle, Professor Tim Roberts.

"Izzy has long expressed her dream to become an astronaut, and I believe that her attendance at the Advanced Space Academy Program at the US Space and Rocket Centre will be an important step for her towards her goal. I urge you/your organisation to support her financially," added Professor Roberts.

Izzy needs to raise $7,050 to make her dream a reality. She's asking the community to help by donating via her GoFundMe page online.

what's on

A cracker of a night at Spring Ridge

Fireworks will light up the night sky to raise money for the Starlight Foundation at the Spring Ridge Bonfire and Cracker Night on July 15.

The annual event now in its seventh year welcomes families and surrounding communities to warm themselves by the bonfire at Spring Ridge Country Club for a great night. Best mates Tom Archer, licensee of the Royal Hotel and the late Warren Green started the night as a social family gathering. Tom says, "It's all about bringing family and friends together. In past years we have had people travelling through and decided to call in and others driving out from Coolah, Tamworth, Gunnedah and Quirindi for the night."

For just $10 per car/family you can enjoy a barbecue, refreshments (supplied by the Spring Ridge P&C), music as well as the stunning visual display by JC 'The Fireworks Man'. Camping is on offer at the recreational ground. The festivities begin at 5pm. No BYO – drinks available for purchase from the Country Club.

The Remington produces a winning combination

Last Friday evening saw the NSW Training Awards – Hunter Region hotly contested with 100 finalists from all over the Hunter at the Newcastle Exhibition & Convention Centre.

Two of Muswellbrook's Remington Motor Inn's trainees were victorious with Brittannie Dalley taking out first place honours in the Certificate 1V Hospitality Trainee of the Year and co-worker Montana Mephram receiving runner-up. The Remington's Duty Manager, Tamara Peterson, says the Remington staff is extremely lucky to have the pair as part of the team and are so proud of their dedication to the business and their training.

"There are over 1300 trainees in the Hunter region – it's an amazing achievement by both girls," stated Ms Petersen.

The Remington is one of Muswellbrook's best motels with a fantastic restaurant serving modern Australian cuisine and great cocktails. The NSW Training Awards are conducted annually by Training Services NSW to recognise outstanding achievement in the vocational education and training sector.

The Awards honour and reward the achievements of students, trainers/teachers, training organisations, large and medium employers.

On exhibition at Michael Reid Murrurundi

Stunning images of wild birds and humpback whales are now adorning the walls at Murrurundi's Michael Reid Gallery.

Artist Denise Faulkner has invited the local wild birds further into her imaginary home. Not only are they selecting cakes and serving tea, but they are staying for dinner, swimming in the wash bowl, pretending to be bouquets in vases and generally creating chaos with crockery. Photographer Jem Cresswell shares stunning images from trips to Tonga, over three years, to capture intimate underwater visions of migrating humpback whales.

Mayor Moore extending welcome

Singleton Mayor Cr Sue Moore put the town's case for a review of the Resources for Regions program when the NSW Government held a community cabinet meeting in Singleton recently.

The cabinet visit came mere months after Cr Moore wrote to Premier Gladys Berejiklian earlier this year to invite the Premier to Singleton to discuss the future of the program, in particular the distribution of funds relative to the mining royalties contributed by local government areas.

"It is a great privilege for our local government area to be chosen to host a community cabinet meeting.

"We have a very successful working relationship with the NSW Government and I look forward to strengthening that bond as a result of Thursday's visit," Cr Moore said.

Image: Upper Hunter Architects' design for the public and commercial space including all-access toilets and pedestrian laneway, that Upper Hunter Shire Council will build on Kelly Street, Scone.

Upper Hunter Shire Council has purchased a Kelly Street property to provide public toilets, pedestrian access through to Farram Lane and an opportunity for new retail activities.

The building at 133 Kelly Street, which was formerly the Scone Sports Store, is in poor structural condition including extensive termite damage to the roof structure which will have to be removed.

The heritage façade including the awning will be retained and repaired and the commercial space will be used for retail purposes.

The new pedestrian laneway will connect Kelly Street and Farram Lane via a landscaped courtyard, and provide more parking for those visiting the CBD.

Tug-of-war titles will test strength and tactics

MAY THE BEST TEAM WIN: The National Tug-o-war titles will be a superb display of strength and skill at next month's Aberdeen Highland Games.

One of the central features of this year's Aberdeen Highland Games on July 1 will be the National Tug-of-war Titles.

Teams from across the nation will come to put their rope-pulling skills to the test against the best of the best. No doubt the cheers will be loudest for Muswellbrook's own Ben Hoffman who is set to compete in the titles after a solid performance at the World Championships in Sweden last year. The tug-of-war will offset the strong man competition as well as all the other Scottish-themed stalls and activities at Jefferson Oval on the day.

For ticket sales or information phone: 02 6540 1300.

INTERNATIONAL ACT: One of the many international top-billing acts to perform at this year's Dashville Skyline is The Roamin' Jasmine from the colourful streets of New Orleans, USA.

Skyline announces first round of artists

The third annual Dashville Skyline, Australia's very own 'Cosmic Country Weekender', has just announced a portion of artists heading to its hallowed bushland home in the Hunter Valley NSW this October Long Weekend.

Pitched as a celebration of alternative country music and culture in its varied forms, the three-day camping festival hosts over 30 live performances, mouth-watering American-inspired food and bevies, boutique market stalls, an animal petting zoo and much, much more.

Held at the same location as The Gum Ball, Dashville Skyline provides an amazing experience for music lovers and has earned quite the name over the last few years as the ultimate weekend escape, full of laid-back country-esque music and good ol' family fun.

International artists include Mark Olson & Ingunn Ringvold from US and Norway, Tim Easton from Nashville, Dan Tuffy's new musical project Songs From Dan (an expat based in the Netherlands), Mel Parsons from NZ and The Roamin' Jasmine from New Orleans.

Australian artists announced today include Cash Savage and The Last Drinks, William Crighton, Immigrant Union, Claire Anne Taylor, Lachlan Bryan & The Wildes, Pony Face, Emma Russack and Roadhouses.

Pack your camping gear and join in the fun!
