SUMMER SATURDAY

With Erin Molan & Mark Levy
Saturday from 12pm - 6pm

WORKING TOGETHER: During the Sir Ivan Fire scrap fencing metal collection property owner Max Weis and Charlie Carlyon, SimsMetal Business Manager for NSW / ACT.

Recycling from Sir Ivans Fire

Eight truckloads of waste metal fencing from properties impacted by the Sir Ivan Fire in February, has been collected at no charge to property owners.

Metal recycling company SimsMetal last week loaded and removed burnt fencing wire and metal posts and transported it to Sydney for recycling.

The company is about a quarter of the way through the list of farms that need burnt fencing wire removed. The light weight and bulky nature of the wire means there is not much weight in each truck load of scrap. Around 28 property owners took up the offer across the Sir Ivan Fire region covering Upper Hunter, Mid-Western Regional and Warrumbungle shires. Cassilis residents impacted by the Sir Ivan Fire can access other free and discounted services from Upper Hunter Shire Council.

For more information about the Sir Ivan Fire Recovery, view the latest newsletter available at www.upperhunter.nsw.gov.au

An event of traditional beauty

There once was a time when a flash of tartan or a note from a bagpipe would be deemed as illegal and frowned upon by authorities.

During this time, many secretive traditions developed to allow those of Scottish and Celtic heritage to continue to display their pride of their culture. Many of these traditions are still carried out today. The Aberdeen Highland Games is one of the biggest and most revered local events that proudly stockpiles and displays a cornucopia of Scottish and Celtic traditions centuries old.

Joint effort to combat wood smoke air pollution

Singleton and Muswellbrook Shire councils are joining forces to combat air pollution from wood smoke this winter.

The councils are working with the NSW Environment Protection Authority to reduce pollution caused by wood smoke in the region by offering $50 cash rebates for the residents who engage professional chimney flue cleaning services.

For more information about using your wood heater efficiently and rebate programs, visit www.singleton.nsw.gov.au/rebate and www.muswellbrook.nsw.gov.au.

School holidays at Upper Hunter libraries

Upper Hunter Shire Libraries are the place to be these school holidays.

The branches at Scone, Murrumbidgee, Merriwa, Aberdeen and Cassilis have a huge range of activities planned to keep kids entertained including mobile building workshops. Each workshop is focused around a theme being either NAIDOC or Christmas in July. 3D Dinosaur Jigsaws, Book Bingo and scratch boards are also on the line-up.

For a full list of activities and times at your local branch log on to www.uhrl.nsw.gov.au

This weekend, Saturday 1st July visitors to the township of Aberdeen will be transported to the Scottish Isles and will have the chance to see the Tartan Warriors battle it out with a traditional 'Strongman Competition'; the National Tug-of war Championship; take in the soulful sounds of a wonderful display of massed pipe bands; Federation Guard and a number of other traditional delights. To add to this, there will be markets, traditional Scottish food, clan information and memorabilia, children's entertainment and novelty events.

It'll be a full weekend of highland flinging that is sure to be entertaining for the whole family! This event is a drawcard for many hundreds of people to the town of Aberdeen and every year, the number of visitors grows larger. So grab your kilts, adjust your sporrans and purchase your tickets online now.

For tickets or more information on individual events, go to www.aberdeenhIGHLANDGAMES.COM.AU or phone (02) 6540 1300.

Art Bazaar popping up

Hunter Arts Network is excited to launch Art Bazaar Pop-Up in 2017. The first Art Bazaar Pop-Ups will be held at The Levee during the Aroma Festival on Saturday 12 August 2017, and Dan Rees Street Carpark during Wallsend Winter Fair on Sunday 13 August 2017.

Art Bazaar is a great opportunity to promote and sell your products and business face to face with the customer. This is a great marketing opportunity to raise your profile and increase brand awareness to large broader audiences at a highly-anticipated market held three times every year attracting visitors from Maitland, Lake Macquarie, Newcastle, Hunter region, day-trippers and holiday makers from surrounding areas.

Celebrating NAIDOC Week

Scone Neighbourhood Resource Centre will be running Aboriginal art workshops for youth during NAIDOC Week.

NAIDOC Week is a time to celebrate Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander history, culture and achievements and is an opportunity to recognise the contributions that Indigenous Australians make to our country and our society. Wonnarua woman Michelle Earl will facilitate painting workshops while sharing the stories of Aboriginal art through the painting of wooden boomerangs. Workshops are free and will be held at the Scone Library on Monday 10th July, 10.30 am – 11.30am for under eight year olds and 1.00pm – 2.00pm for nine years and over.

Contact the library on 6540 1183 to book.

Profit from your passion now online

Did you miss Hunter Arts Network's Profit from your Passion workshop with Monica Davidson at Lambton on 20 May 2017?

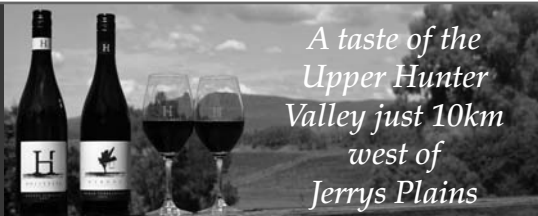

Well lucky for you the workshop was filmed, and you can now watch it online. Monica Davidson's presentation examined what creative people need to know about business and marketing if they are to profit from their passion.

The fast and fun workshop identified the most essential aspect for anyone starting out, or already running, a creative business. The workshop is tailored specifically to creative people who are (or want to be) self-employed, and the information is relevant no matter what your profession – filmmakers, writers, designers, visual artists, performers – all can benefit from a quick introduction or refresher to the basics of creative business.

To find out more get in touch with the Hunter Arts Network.

Are you in the tourism industry?

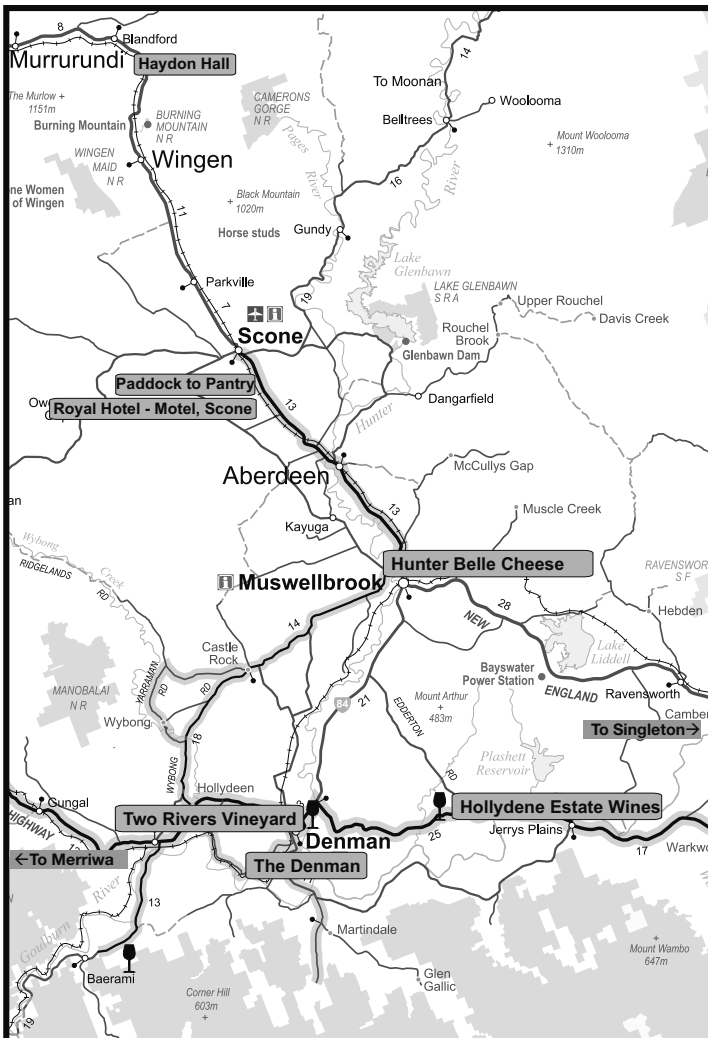

If you are an accommodation or tour operator, pub, club or eatery, visitor attraction, retail outlet or event organiser then the answer is YES!

You are invited to come along to Upper Hunter Country Tourism's industry mingle to meet fellow operators, to network and connect and to hear all about how your business could benefit from membership of UHCT and how you can advertise in the 2018 Upper Hunter Visitor Guide.

Thoroughbred snippets

By Brian Russell

Godolphin-bred and raced Impending's win in the $1.5million Stradbroke at Doomben on June 10 lifted the 3-year-old colt's sire Lonhro of Aberdeen's Darley Stud into 12th spot by earnings on the national sires' list for 2016-17. At the same time it confirmed that his mother's sire Encosta de Lago has galloped away with the broodmare sire by money, winners and wins for the second successive year.

After the Stradbroke carnival weekend's racing, Encosta de Lago's national broodmare statistics for 2016 - 17 are 255 winners of 393 races and $16,891,410. With six weeks of the racing year to go, he has prospects of toppling Danehill's national broodmare earnings record established in 2010-11 of $17,248,376.

A new high price could be set at Scone's White Park when the Turangga mare and weanling dispersal sale takes place on July 23. Currently the record for Scone, the home for annual Inglis bloodstock sales for seventy years, is $120,000, a price paid for an I Am Invincible colt at the 2017 edition of the Hunter Valley Breeders sale in May. The achievements of the Ramseys at Turangga, an upmarket quality stud in the Segenhoe Valley, east of Scone, since they acquired this long-established horse breeding complex in 2003 underlines the dispersal as one that should attract high level buyers.

One of the most spectacular performances on the racetrack in 2017 came from Nettoyer at Randwick on June 10. The horse was produced by Invermien Pty Ltd and bought for $20,000 at the Easter Sales. Raced by her trainer Wendy Roche, Warwick Farm with J. Crowley and the only maiden in the eight runner field, this daughter of Widden Stud-based Sebring missed the start, ran wide and well back for much of the journey but exploded away in the final 100m and scored by ten lengths.

Are you in the tourism industry?

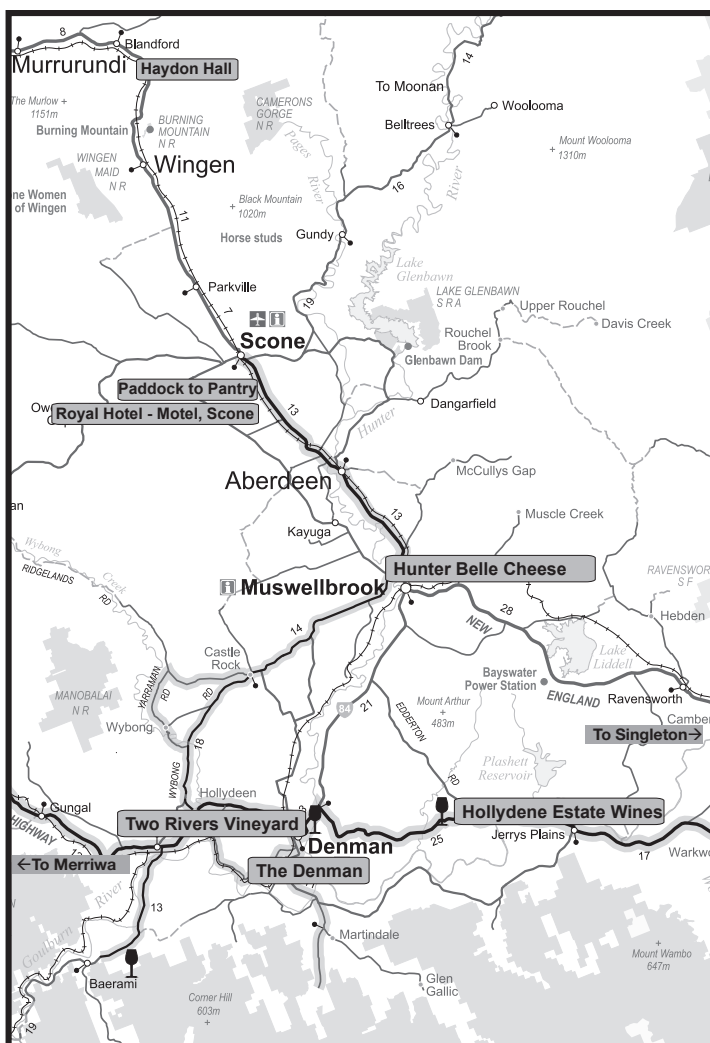

If you are an accommodation or tour operator, pub, club or eatery, visitor attraction, retail outlet or event organiser then the answer is YES!

You are invited to come along to Upper Hunter Country Tourism's industry mingle to meet fellow operators, to network and connect and to hear all about how your business could benefit from membership of UHCT and how you can advertise in the 2018 Upper Hunter Visitor Guide.

Thoroughbred snippets

By Brian Russell

Godolphin-bred and raced Impending's win in the $1.5million Stradbroke at Doomben on June 10 lifted the 3-year-old colt's sire Lonhro of Aberdeen's Darley Stud into 12th spot by earnings on the national sires' list for 2016-17. At the same time it confirmed that his mother's sire Encosta de Lago has galloped away with the broodmare sire by money, winners and wins for the second successive year.

After the Stradbroke carnival weekend's racing, Encosta de Lago's national broodmare statistics for 2016 - 17 are 255 winners of 393 races and $16,891,410. With six weeks of the racing year to go, he has prospects of toppling Danehill's national broodmare earnings record established in 2010-11 of $17,248,376.

A new high price could be set at Scone's White Park when the Turangga mare and weanling dispersal sale takes place on July 23. Currently the record for Scone, the home for annual Inglis bloodstock sales for seventy years, is $120,000, a price paid for an I Am Invincible colt at the 2017 edition of the Hunter Valley Breeders sale in May. The achievements of the Ramseys at Turangga, an upmarket quality stud in the Segenhoe Valley, east of Scone, since they acquired this long-established horse breeding complex in 2003 underlines the dispersal as one that should attract high level buyers.

One of the most spectacular performances on the racetrack in 2017 came from Nettoyer at Randwick on June 10. The horse was produced by Invermien Pty Ltd and bought for $20,000 at the Easter Sales. Raced by her trainer Wendy Roche, Warwick Farm with J. Crowley and the only maiden in the eight runner field, this daughter of Widden Stud-based Sebring missed the start, ran wide and well back for much of the journey but exploded away in the final 100m and scored by ten lengths.
