Seeking Young Endeavour crew

Six young people will be embarking on an amazing sailing adventure in early 2018 as part of the Upper Hunter Shire Council Young Endeavour Scheme.

Nominations for Upper Hunter youth, aged 16 to 24 years, are invited from Young Endeavour scheme sponsors, schools, community and sporting groups for this adventure of a lifetime on a tall ship. Nominations close Friday 18 August 2017.

The six participants will survive sea sickness, cold, wet, cramped conditions, sleep deprivation, climbing to the top of the mast, and being without their phones or television, and then describe it as the 'experience of a lifetime'.

Council is seeking sponsorship from businesses and community groups to contribute toward the $30,000 cost of six berths on the tall ship.

For more nomination and sponsorship information and forms, visit Council's website www.upperhunter.nsw.gov.au, 'Our Services, Youth Services' or drop into a Council office.

Dr Sophie Oosterwijk to present at ADFAS

The next Scone ADFAS lecture will focus on Wine, Women and Song? Dr Sophie Oosterwijk will visit town to share her insight into Dutch Genre painting by Vermeer and his Contemporaries on July 11.

Dr Sophie Oosterwijk has a PhD in art history (Leicester) and in English literature (Leiden). She specialises in portraiture and representation, death and commemoration in European art. Medieval, Netherlandish and Dutch seventeenth-century art are among her other teaching interests. She has published widely, including two co-edited volumes on the production of tomb sculpture in England and Wales in the fourteenth century (2010) and on the danse macabre in medieval and early modern Europe (2011). She is co-editor of the journal Church Monuments and also collaborated on the Dutch MeMO (Medieval Memoria Online) database, which was launched in 2013.

Genre paintings are often described as scenes of everyday life, but there is usually more to them than that. The artist frequently left clues to a deeper meaning behind the first impression. Sophie has lectured at numerous universities, art tours and the Victoria & Albert Museum in London. The lecture will take place at 5.30pm at Scone Arts and Crafts Hall.

How to report scooter issues

Lee Watts manager of the Scone Neighbourhood Resource Centre (SNRC) reported the service has been approached by motorised scooter users to work with them to get the most from their scooters.

Chris Hick a local motorised scooter user stated, "I would like to see a group come together that can identify where there are issues on the roads and footpaths, and how to report those to the proper authorities."

"A round table with scooter users and Upper Hunter Shire Council staff has been organised to look at existing pathways and gutters, to discuss future works and what are the issues for motorised scooter users living in the Upper Hunter Shire." Mrs Watts said.

Mrs Watts has invited users to be a part the day by phoning her on 6545 2562. The initial meeting will be held at the Upper Hunter Shire meeting room at 135 Liverpool Street, Scone on Tuesday the 18th July.

Celebrating NAIDOC Week – ‘Our Languages Matter’

Upper Hunter Shire Council celebrated NAIDOC week with a range of activities.

There was an exchange of gifts with the Wanaruah community representing steps to better understand cultures in Muswellbrook. In Scone, Council held a 'yarning circle' and welcomed guest speaker Sharon Edgar-Jones who hosted a cultural sharing workshop. In Merriwa Council held a flag-raising ceremony with Aboriginal elders and other representatives followed by a morning tea featuring traditional foods. In Murrurundi, there was an afternoon tea with a presentation on "Closing the Gap" focusing on health.

Scone Library in partnership with the Scone Neighbourhood Resource Centre hosted Aboriginal Art workshops for young people. Council is also organising a series of NAIDOC workshops at the Merriwa Central School, St Joseph's Primary School Merriwa, Gummun Place Hostel and Murrurundi Public School on the 6 and 7 of September.

The workshops will include creating colourful dragonflies for the window, ochre art, boomerang throwing and creating a grass 'garaarr' skirt using raffia with Gamilaraay elder Dolly and Blu Jerome.

NAIDOC Week is a celebration of the history, culture and achievements of all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.

Governor of NSW visits Tocal College

Tocal College recently hosted the Governor of NSW, David Hurley and his wife on campus.

The two-hour visit included demonstrations and discussions on precision agriculture and technology, beekeeping, beef cattle and quad bike safety. The day concluded with tours of the campus and Tocal Homestead.

The Governor spent time with students and heard directly from them on what they are learning and what they hope to do in the future. The Governor was also interested in the way technology is now being used in agriculture to reduce input costs and maximise yields.

The NSW Governor's visit to Tocal College was part of a wider tour of the Hunter region.

Dashville on the road

One of the Hunter's best music festival venues is taking its offerings on the road.

The team at Dashville has brought together some of their favourite musical acts for a series of special showcase concerts in various locations around Australia. They've billed it as an exciting way to drag a bit of Dashville magic into the weird and wonderful confines of our sparse nation; into cities, rural outcrops, places of worship, places that pour beer.

The first gig takes place at Branxton on Friday July 7 at the Royal Federal Hotel.
