Battling it out for a spot in the limelight

Musicians from around the Hunter will have the opportunity to perform, gain local exposure, and win their way to a spot in a grand final line-up in Battle of the Bands.

The Denman Hotel will take centre stage when the Battle of the Bands comes to the Upper Hunter. $2000 prize money and a chance to play at Muswellbrook's Bottoms Up Festival in October will be up for grabs. Muswellbrook's Railway Hotel is also running at battle, their first round kicks off on August 4 at 7.30pm with the finals taking place on August 12.

Another round for Scone Golf Course

A new $3.8 million Scone Golf Course is expected to be completed in mid 2018.

The reconstruction of part of the course is required because Roads and Maritime Services' (RMS) proposed route for the Scone bypass travels through the existing holes 1, 4, 6, 7, 9 and the practice range.

RMS are funding the $3.8 million redesign and construction, with Upper Hunter Shire Council providing the additional land required for the redevelopment. Council has engaged Weidlich Golf Design to manage the delivery of the project.

The golf course is expected to be closed from September 2017 through to July 2018 during the reconstruction and grow-in of the new layout. The plans do not involve changes to the Scone Sporties Clubhouse.

Mayor Wayne Bedggood said the redesigned course would be of a standard comparable to the current course with 18 tees and nine greens, and similar course distances and slope rating.

"The new course should be just as challenging as the current one. It will be a professionally designed course with a fully automated irrigation system.

"There has been a rigorous process of community consultation and tendering to get the project to here. Several thousand games of golf are played at Scone every year and we want to get this right."

To redesign the course, Council has been in discussion with RMS, Golf Club members and the RSL Club management over the last two years.

On 14 July 2017 Council accepted the tender from McMahoys Pty Ltd for the detailed design and reconstruction of Scone Golf Course, which will take approximately 50 weeks to complete. McMahoys have teamed up with Pacific Golf Design project. Both firms have a long track record in the golf industry.

Free workshop at Muswellbrook Regional Arts Centre

Artist Travis De Vries (pictured) will hold a workshop exploring the use of symbolism in his latest exhibition: Lost Tales: Walking with Gods on Saturday 5th of August 2017.

De Vries' work utilises a rich source material of Australian Indigenous lore and drawing from the tropes and techniques of comic book, video game and pop culture creators. Designed for experienced artist, this workshop will provide a unique insight into the methods Travis has used to create his work and how you can create working in the future and find your artistic voice. This workshop is suitable for both Indigenous and non-indigenous visual artists or even storytellers and writers who wish to look further than painting/drawing techniques and delve into the narrative behind the artwork with an emphasis on construction of a greater narrative behind their body of work. Bookings are essential.

Real freshness and real quality at Live & Local

For most of us, there's no better place to buy meat, fruit, vegetables, condiments, plants, craft etc. than at a local produce market. Period. In Scone last Saturday saw just that with some of the best of the Upper Hunter's produce on offer when Scone's Paddock to Pantry hosted the popular market - Live & Local. The event brings together local growers, suppliers and buskers for a laid-back morning of enjoyment.

"The unique nature of this event is that we are endeavouring to localise the area from which the product is drawn. This makes it very local and seasonal.

We have some really wonderful producers of food here already and the area is ripe for growing this 'cottage' industry even further," stated proprietor and market organiser, Steve Guihot.

With beautiful products from Hunter Valley Pasta, Merrifield Farm Pork, Papanui Eggs, Jo Jo's Jams & Relishes, Tilse's Apples, just to name a few, plus stalls with craft and plants, this market offers superior quality and increases the amount of local food and products available to market-goers and shoppers.

Live and Local will take place at Paddock to Pantry on Kelly Street in Scone regularly. For further information phone 6545 9851 during business hours.

Local and international brought together

The range of events being hosted by Singleton Council during Local Government Week is a showcase of the 2017 theme of Discovery, Diversity and Democracy. Running from 31 July to 6 August 2017, the week will kick off in Singleton with a Citizenship Ceremony and the launch of nominations for the Wambo Coal Singleton Hall of Fame.

A Mayoral Welcome will follow on Tuesday 1 August 2017, when the Mayor of Singleton, Cr Sue Moore, will host a special event for the Mayor and students from Singleton High School's Japanese sister school, Takahata, as part of a cultural exchange program to encourage bilingual language education and cultural immersion.

Cultural Activity Grants available

Non-profit community organisations in the Upper Hunter Shire who run cultural or art projects are invited to apply for funding from Upper Hunter Shire Council before 30 August 2017.

Each year Council awards dozens of Cultural Activity Grants (CAGs) to assist local non-profit organisations to promote and developing cultural and art resources and activities in the community.

Theatre performances, arts and craft supplies, sport fun days, museum displays and a fire pit in a school yard, are some of the successful projects that have been funded by these grants.

They are open to incorporated non-profit community based organisations from within the Upper Hunter Shire for innovative projects and partnerships.

Last year Council gave out 24 grants ranging from $180 to $1000 for a range of projects worth $12,780. Some of the projects included cinema equipment, Christmas workshops, arts and crafts supplies and a display case for World War 1 medals from 3 local veterans.

Applications open 2 August 2017 and close 30 August 2017. Successful projects will be announced in late September.

Application form and guidelines are available on Council's website upperhunter.nsw.gov.au/cultural-activity-grants.aspx or from Council offices

For further information about these grants contact Community Services on 6540 1153.

Eastern quoll bred at Devil Ark

The team behind the Barrington Tops Devil Ark is celebrating with the announcement of the first Eastern quoll joeys born at the breeding facility.

In 2016 Devil Ark opened its doors to another endangered species, the Eastern quoll, with assistance by Australian Geographic to help the species come back from the brink of extinction. Devil Ark staff recently conducted pouch check on two of the female quolls and confirmed 12 joeys.

This number is expected to climb to 30 with final pouch checks of the remaining females to be completed in the coming weeks. Devil Ark's plan is to secure the species with an insurance population, then return them to wild when the species is at stable numbers.

National Tree Day – an inspiration

Muswellbrook Shire celebrated National Tree Day on Sunday July 30 by putting 3200 plants in the ground at four planting sites.

In Muswellbrook they were at Fitzgerald Park, Karoola Park and Volunteer Park, while in Denman planting took place at Hyde Park. The plantings focused on re-establishing local native species to help create habitat and corridors for wildlife.

National Tree Day started in 1996 and since then more than 3.8 million people have planted 23 million trees and plants - and it's still growing. It is an opportunity to do something positive for your local environment and community, allows people to reconnect with nature and inspires them to actively care for our unique land.

Promising young talent on the vine

Applications are now open for a scholarship named in honour of fifth-generation vigneron and member of one of Australia's pioneering wine families, Trevor Drayton.

The Trevor Drayton Scholarship, granted by the Hunter TAFE Foundation, comprises awards in culinary, hospitality, and winemaking. The scholarships, valued at $2500 each, seek to discover promising young talent in the region and showcase the Hunter and Central Coast's vibrant tourism and hospitality industry.

The scholarship was established by a group of friends and associates of the renowned Hunter winemaker, tragically killed in 2008.

"Trevor was an industry icon who carried his family's winemaking tradition with dignity. The Trevor Drayton Scholarship was created to assist people starting out in the industry and support them as they pursue the same level of excellence that Trevor always strove for," Mr Webster said.

"By partnering with the Hunter TAFE Foundation we are able to support the career development of students and young industry professionals who have their skills founded in the quality training that TAFE NSW provides right here in the Hunter."

Kim Williams (pictured above) was the 2017 Trevor Drayton Scholarship winemaking recipient and had initially enrolled in the Diploma of Viticulture at TAFE NSW Kurri Kurri with a keen interest in agriculture and desire to learn more about wine and the science behind the industry.

The scholarship is open to all current and past TAFE NSW students who have completed training within the past five years in hospitality, culinary skills or winemaking. Applications for 2018 are now open and will close on 29 November 2017. To apply go to "Scholarships" at www.hunter.tafensw.edu.au
