Festival connects with young readers

To mark national Book Week Scone's flourishing writer's festival has released details of their program dedicated to our young readers and budding writers.

In this fast-paced digital age the Scone Literary Festival committee is passionate about encouraging their younger audience to 'maintain the page' so will once again be hosting a pre-school program at Scone Library on November 10. In addition to the sessions at the Library UNLOAD will once again be running sessions for K-6 on the same day, and for High School aged students there is a writing competition to enter and win a prize pool of $1000.

The competition is currently underway and entries close on 1 September. Stories need to be based around the festival theme of 'Making Connections' and need only be 500 words so hop onto www.sconewritersfestival.com.au/ write-up and Write Up!

Celebrate eSmart Week at the library

The Alannah & Madeline Foundation's National eSmart Week will be held from 4 - 8 September 2017.

Denman and Muswellbrook branches of the Upper Hunter Library Network, along with thousands of communities across NSW are demonstrating their commitment to cyber safety, wellbeing and digital inclusion.

The Muswellbrook library will be hosting a guest speaker from Legal Aid NSW to present a talk on 'Cyber Safety for Older People' which will outline common on-line scams, how to identify them and provides ideas about how to avoid being scammed. It also covers how to report scams to authorities.

Celebrating 35 years for the 'Mare and Foal'

This year marks the 35th year since Elizabeth Park's iconic Mare and Foal statue was unveiled and the occasion was fittingly celebrated at the August Scone Country Markets with the theme the 'Horses' Birthday'.

The statue was unveiled on 3 March, 1982 by the Hon Eric Bedford and cost about $75,000, commissioned by local horse breeders to 'promote Scone as the leading horse breeding centre in Australia' as a 'wonderful tourist attraction to give pleasure to the many people who see it'. The sculpture was created by Dutch-born artist Gabriël Sterk in his foundry in Adelaide.

Stallion open house

Some of the Upper Hunter's best horse studs are throwing open their doors.

Newgate, Arrowfield and Vinery have all arranged open house style events aimed at both breeders and the community. The events are spread out over several days between August 24 and 27.

Get in touch with your preferred stud if you would like to go along.

Funds donated in true Merriwa spirit

Merriwa's 27th annual June long-weekend festival has raised a fleece-load of funds for the Westpac Rescue Helicopter Service and the town's homegrown Volunteer Rescue Association (VRA).

On Sunday 13 August the Festival of the Fleeces committee presented a $4000 cheque to each of the rescue services in front of about 35 people at the VRA shed in Merriwa.

Scarecrow Day at Murrurundi

Murrurundi Public School is holding a Scarecrow Day 2017.

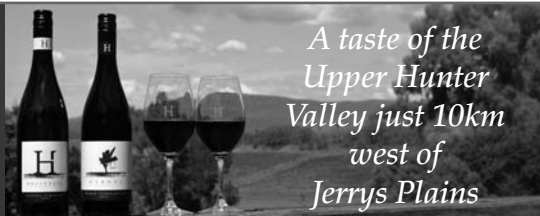

Teachers and students have been busy making entries, with one from every class. The community is also welcome to participate and it's thought a record 100 entries could be reached this year. School Principal Leanne Batho says she's more excited than her students about Scarecrow Day which will be held at 11am on Friday 1st September.

'We have many pledges of support from local business houses and clubs. This year we are adding to an already successful formula with additional stalls including a lemonade, plant and cake stalls and a barbecue. To continue the theme our students will enjoy some old time games with family and friends so it should be a great event for everyone to take part in. Our students and the local Pre-school will sing and enjoy the day together,' she said. Well-known local artist Mandy Archibald and ABC Upper Hunter's Mike Pritchard will judge the competition.

For entry forms and further information contact the school on 6546 6057. Completed scarecrows are to be delivered to Murrurundi Public School by 3.30pm on Wednesday 30th August.

Raising funds for Where There's a Will

Merriwa PAH & I Association invites you to join them for a prelude to spring to raise money for 'Where There's a Will'.

There will be a live band, live and silent auctions, delicious food and complimentary drink on arrival. Cash bar available. Tickets are $60 per person.

Please email preludetospring@gmail.com or contact Amanda Kemp on 0457 485 150 to book your tickets. The event will take place on Saturday August 26.

This is no ordinary market

The new Dods and Zucco designed art gallery at Murrurundi is on track for completion in just three short weeks!

The 285 square metre gallery, with a rooftop-deck viewing platform, will open in time for the forthcoming, inaugural Bobadil House Spring Market. The Bobadil House Spring Market will take place on the site of the former horse paddock, of Bobadil House (1842), over the October long weekend. As the October long weekend actually starts at the end of September - the market day will be on Sunday 1st October.

The overriding theme for the Bobadil House Spring Market will be quality, quality, quality; handmade; localish goods and produce.

Stay tuned to the Entertainer for further details.

Further works on Brookers Bridge

Singleton Council has started work to strengthen Brookers Bridge on Mirannie Road at Reedy Creek, which is expected to allow the structure to carry GVM vehicles (42.5 tonnes).

A two-tonne limit and 10km/h speed limit has been in place since 11 August 2017, when an engineers' inspection found urgent action was necessary to mitigate the risk of potential collapse. Council staff have been onsite around the clock to ensure adherence to the load limit, and school buses are collecting and dropping off school children on the southern side of the bridge.

Golden Oldies presents Shiralee

The next luncheon and movie to be held by the Upper Hunter Museum of Rural Life will be on Tuesday September 12, when they will present The Shiralee, starring Peter Finch and Dana Wilson.

This classic Australian film from 1957 has many scenes filmed locally and money raised on the day will assist the Upper Hunter Museum of Rural Life. Doors open at 11.30am at Aberdeen Sport and Recreation Club and a three-course luncheon will be served prior to the screening of the movie. A donation of $10 is requested to cover costs.

As numbers are limited, early bookings are essential and can be made by telephoning 65 438 356 or 65 437 150.

Thoroughbred Snippets

Australia's newest super sire, Snitzel stands at Scone's Arrowfield stud.

The horse by Redoute's Choice and Snippet's Lass. The former top notch Australian sprinter has swept the board, taking out the titles of leading Australian sire by earnings, winners, stakes winners, 3-year-olds and 2-year-olds – earnings and numbers. Another top performer was Encosta de Lago. Initially at Blue Gum Farm in Victoria by arrangements with Coolmore, but for the bulk of his sire career at Coolmore Hunter Valley, Encosta De Lago provided from 18 seasons of use in Australia 1617 starters, 1139 winners (70.4%) (113 SWs – 27 Group1) of 3754 races and over $102million.

Yarraman Park Stud's-based I Am Invincible has established a new southern hemisphere record for most wins in a year by a sire. With only four crops of racing age in 2016-17, his stats for Australian racing through the year show 145 winners (11 SWs, 29 2yos) of 274 races and $12,194,618 (fourth highest). On top of this his Australian sired progeny have competed successfully in New Zealand, Singapore, Hong Kong and South Africa (1 runner). Their performances have lifted his figures for the year to 165 winners of 307 races and $15,509,294.

The 2017 Melbourne Cup will visit Widden Stud on August 24 and 25. There will be the escorts for Australia's most coveted racing trophy, the $200,000 18-carat Gold Cup, which is to be collected by connections of the winner of the 2017 $6million Melbourne Cup. It is to be on display on the Thursday and Friday at the Widden showing, one which is to be highlighted each day by the parading before guests of their high quality band of stallions.

Wallaby Scrub Road hangs in the balance

A decision on the future of Wallaby Scrub Road will be the subject of an extraordinary meeting of Singleton Council on Monday 28 August 2017.

Council received a total of 1,639 submissions in support or opposition to Coal & Allied's request to close the road when the public exhibition period began on 1 March 2017. Council staff then spent several months collating the responses in preparation of a report to councillors for consideration on whether to make application to the Minister for Lands and Forestry to make a final decision to close the road. The report will be available on Wednesday prior to the meeting.

MUSWELLBROOK CINEMA MOVIE REVIEW

AMERICAN MADE

(MA15+) 115 mins

Barry Seal, a TWA pilot, is recruited by the CIA to provide reconnaissance on the burgeoning communist threat in Central America and soon finds himself in charge of one of the biggest covert CIA operations in the history of the United States. The operation spawns the birth of the Medellin cartel and almost brings down the Reagan White House.

Too valuable to lose

Scone Neighbourhood Resource Centre is looking into options to continue The Upper Hunter's Virtual Men's Shed project, which is set to wrap up in December.

The program has been running for eight years now and has given men across the region many valuable opportunities to enjoy each other's company and build networks. The most recent trip to Buttai Barn (pictured) was a huge success.

Singleton's youth showcase their talent

The talents of Singleton's young people are about to go on display as they vie for a place on stage in the first-ever Singleton's Got Talent.

Hosted by Singleton Youth Venue, young people aged between 11 and 17 can show off their particular skills at auditions on Friday 18 August 2017 from 3.30pm, with performers selected for the major event on Wednesday 30 August 2017. Up-and-coming stars will have three minutes to wow the judges at the auditions, with those chosen then given five minutes to take out the competition.

For more information, contact Singleton Youth Venue on (02) 6578 7501 or email youthvenue@singleton.nsw.gov.au

All aboard the Bottoms Up bus

If listening to live music, sampling craft beer, local wine, cider and delicious street food sounds like a good afternoon out – then jump on the festival bus and get to Simpson Park, Muswellbrook on Saturday, 21 October. The Bottoms Up Festival kicks off at 1.30pm and – with a little forward planning – you can save on your entry ticket and travel safely to and from the event.

Buses will run from Singleton, Aberdeen and Scone during the festival and, to ensure a seat, buy your ticket online when you buy your entry ticket. Seats are limited - don't miss out.

Festival headliners Thundamentals will be joined in the line-up by Nicole Millar, Winston Surfshirt, Polish Club, Australia and Raave Tapes for an afternoon and evening of brilliant music.

Tickets to the event and for the bus are available from www.bottomsupfest.com.au
