A first-rate market

The next Denman Farmers & Artisans Market is coming up on Saturday, September 2.

Don't miss out on this great chance to stock up on fantastic local produce. The market is a predominantly producers-only market full of fresh fruit and vegetables, nuts, oils and olives, meat, cheese and dairy, seafood, preserves, cakes & pre-packaged foods and wine. There are also lots of locally-grown plants, seeds and seedlings as well as locally-grown cut flowers. Any local art and craft featured at the market must be sold directly from the maker or producer.

If you can't make it this month don't fret, the markets are held on the first Saturday of the month between 8am and 12pm at Lions Park at the top of Ogilvie Street, Denman.

Dashville Skyline – program announced

The full lineup for the Dashville Skyline Festival has just been announced.

It seems Ben Ely from Regurgitator can't get enough of the Belford venue, he's agreed to headline the Sunday Wind Down Party. Ely will perform songs from his brand new solo record Strange Tales of Drugs & Lost Love. Probably the most exciting new feature of Dashville Skyline this year will be the Pop-up Recording Studio. Running for the duration of the festival, anyone attending can purchase 15minute windows at a time and lay down a professional recording. All for the proceeds of self-advancement and a mental health charity.

Landscape plans unveiled

Draft landscape concept plans for Singleton's Burdekin Park recently unveiled for community feedback include an option to relocate the cenotaph as the park's centerpiece to distinguish zones for community activities and flying-fox habitat.

Submissions on the plans will close on Wednesday 11 October 2017. In order to encourage residents to review the draft plan and provide feedback, Council will hold a series of community engagement activities including drop-in sessions at the park. Council staff will also meet with stakeholders and visit schools.

The plans can be viewed at Council's Administration Building, Singleton Library, and online at www.singleton.nsw.gov.au

St Heliers Landcare

Staff and inmates at St Heliers Correctional Centre have been removing exotic trees and planting native species along Sandy Creek in a hope to restore habitat and control erosion.

Sandy Creek, which flows out of McCully's Gap into the Hunter River at Muswellbrook, has been heavily farmed over the last century and large stretches of the creek have no native vegetation.

The Sandy Creek Project aims not only to restore habitat and control erosion but also help in the recovery of the Hunter Floodplain Red Gum Woodland, an endangered ecological community. Local Landcare Coordinator Nicholas Alexander hopes to set up a Landcare group in the region.
