Countdown to Singleton Show

Aussie FMX gives you the opportunity to see some of the country's top Freestyle Motocross riders in action, as they turn themselves inside out and upside down while flying 75 feet through the air. These death-defying athletes perform some of the biggest stunts in action sports, including the famous 'Backflip'.

There is plenty to see in the ring with horse sports, working dog trials, dog high jump and the 2017 Singleton Showgirl competition. Browse through the arts and craft pavilions, machinery museum, horticulture and poultry sheds and trade stalls or join in the fun of sideshow alley.

If you're interested in heart stopping entertainment and a show the whole family will love, get down and check out the Aussie FMX team in action at the 2017 Glencore Singleton Show.

Art up close

Muswellbrook Regional Arts Centre has just launched a new triannual publication highlighting the centre's exhibitions and activities.

Art upClose will continue the traditions established by the Arts Centre newsletter over the past twelve years and provide a useful and informative guide to what's going on at the Arts Centre and in the art world of the Upper Hunter Region and beyond. Bobadil is coming...

The countdown is on for the inaugural Bobadil House Spring Market to be held on the Sunday of the October long weekend (1 October) from 10am to 3pm on the beautiful grounds of the established art gallery, Michael Reid Murrurundi.

The Bobadil House Spring Market will showcase a carefully selected range of over 30 talented stallholders who will offer for sale quality, handmade, localish goods and fresh produce. A limited number of stall sites are still available. Stallholder applications can be downloaded by visiting the Market Day page on the Michael Reid Murrurundi website <https://michaelreidmurrurundi.com.au/visit/market-day/>

To engage the market crowd a series of free informative mini workshops are planned focused on art, gardening, home decorating, cooking and more.

One of the stallholders, Katie Godden, will be joining the market stage to share her interesting food journey and how her granolas and comestibles sold under the brand of Rosy Cheeks came to be.

Well known artist, Ben Tankard, whose exhibition 'A Room with a View' currently on show in the Murrurundi Gallery, will be onsite at the Market Day doing a live painting display.

Live entertainment will be another feature of the market with the local homegrown tunes and vocals of Chloe Hall originally from Murrurundi entertaining the crowd along with Hugo Morgan from Scone.

Your little people will be well catered for with free activities and face painting to ensure they enjoy their market day out.

Cherie Dykes of Paddock to Pantry shows how the Upper Hunter Country stickers have been incorporated on the chalkboards.

Upper Hunter Country stickers save on fees

The simple act of adding an 'Upper Hunter Country' sticker to an A-frame chalkboard or the tables and chairs out on the footpath will save a business its 2017/18 annual footpath trading licence fees in the Upper Hunter Shire.

At Paddock to Pantry in Scone, Upper Hunter Country stickers adorn both colourful chalkboards on the footpath and owner Steve Guihot is pleased he will be reimbursed his footpath trading fee.

Upper Hunter Shire Council is also offering financial assistance to business owners to help revitalise streetscapes in towns across the Shire by way of a grant of up to $1,000 to refurbish shopfronts.

Big names and ideas for writers festival

Come on Up to Scone to be stimulated and refreshed by making new connections at the annual Scone Literary Festival on 11 and 12 November.

The festival boasts a stellar line up of big names worthy of being on the bill of any major city festival including Peter FitzSimons and our local literary treasure Phillip Adams.

Tom Thompson (publisher, collector and valuer) and local, Peter Haydon, will launch 'To Beersheba 1917', a book celebrating the 100th anniversary of the Australian Light Horse and the Charge at Beersheba. Another star attraction this year is Rosalie Ham, whose great book 'The Dressmaker' was made into a very successful movie.

For more information on guests and activities visit: www.sconewritersfestival.com.au

STAR ATTRACTION: Australian author Rosalie Ham (pictured) who wrote 'The Dressmaker' will feature at this year's Scone Writers Festival.

New mayor in town for a day

Image: Mayor for a Day winner Olivia Collins with UHSC Mayor Wayne Bedgood.

Upper Hunter Shire Council Mayor Olivia Collins has declared Merriwa will receive a bowling alley, a motor bike track and a water slide at the pool in an effort to attract more people to town, after all, 'more people means more money'.

And the town very likely would if the St Joseph's Merriwa year 6 student was Mayor for more than just a day.

Actual UHSC Mayor, Wayne Bedgood said Olivia proved herself a worthy winner of this year's Mayor for a Day competition and certainly lacked 'neither confidence nor conviction' when asked to read out what she would do for her community.

Thoroughbred snippets

Newcomer Maurice is being touted as one of the best Northern Hemisphere racehorses ever used in Australia. Currently standing at Arrowfield, Maurice hails from American-bred giant of Japanese breeding Sunday Silence.

Scone-bred horse Hales won the feature race, the Chinese Equine Cultural Festival (CECF) North Dakota Classic (2000m) at the futuristic Yiqi racecourse at Ordos in the northern China region known as Inner Mongolia on August 20. The 2009 foaled Haradasun gelding was bred by D C and Madelaine Kourea using Zarissa, a Zabeel mare disposed of in 2012 for $1000 and now deceased.

At 21 years-old Vinery Stud's Testa Rossa continues to be a very reliable sire. In 2016-17 his progeny ran in Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, Malaysia, Singapore, Hong Kong and Macau won 126 races (seven stakes) and earned $5,220,912.

His successes during the year and in the first month of 2017-18 have taken his lifetime statistics to 690 winners (a good strike rate of 73.7%) of 2291 races and over $77million.

Buskers wanted

Buskers are needed for the Jerrys Plains Community Fair on Saturday 16 September 2017.

The fair runs from 8am - 2pm. Your set will need to be an acoustic one as no electricity is available at the fair.

If you are interested in busking you can contact Rhonda Walters on 0402 026 143.

Roamin' Jasmine will do their first tour of Australia, where they will play the Dashville Skyline Festival and a series of sideshows in NSW and Victoria.

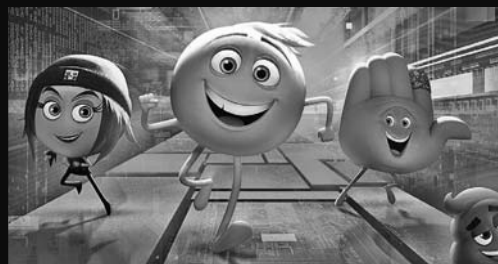

New Orleans own The Roamin' Jasmine

The Roamin' Jasmine are coming to the Dashville Skyline festival to perform over the October long weekend on their first tour of Australia with guests including Lachlan Bryan, Zoe K, and Tim Easton.

Forged out of the lively street music scene in the French Quarter, bandleader Taylor Smith found the original members of the Roamin' Jasmine busking under the swampy Louisiana sun, along the banks of the Mississippi, or after hours in storefronts on Royal, Frenchmen and Decatur Streets.

MUSWELLBROOK CINEMA MOVIE REVIEW

THE EMOJI MOVIE

Rated (G) 91 mins

The Emoji Movie unlocks the never-before-seen secret world inside your smartphone. Hidden within the messaging app is Textopolis, a bustling city where all your favorite emojis live, hoping to be selected by the phone's user. In this world, each emoji has only one facial expression - except for Gene, an exuberant emoji who was born without a filter and is bursting with multiple expressions. Determined to become "normal" like the other emojis, Gene enlists the help of his handy best friend Hi-5 and the notorious code breaker emoji Jailbreak.
