A fantastic musical for the whole family

It's on again! Scone Grammar School will present the Upper Hunter's next generation of musical talent on show when they stage the musical Seussical Jr. based on the works by Dr. Seuss in June.

Horton the Elephant, Cat in the Hat and all of your favourite Dr. Seuss characters spring to life onstage in Seussical Jr., a fantastical musical extravaganza from Tony-winners, Lynn Ahrens and Stephen Flaherty.

The audience will be transported from the Jungle of Nool to the Circus McGurkus; where Cat in the Hat narrates the story of Horton the Elephant.

Throughout Horton's journey the powers of friendship, loyalty, family and community are challenged and emerge triumphant.

The cast and crew of 85 have been working hard since February to bring this show to life, they even did an acting level with renowned Australian actress Rachael Beck from Home and Away fame.

There are only five performances in the season: 20 June, 21 June, 22 June, 28 June and 29 June @ 6.00pm St Luke's Hall, Scone.

Tickets are priced at: $25 for adults; $20 for students and senior citizens and can be booked online at www.trybooking.com/384397

Children Under 5 do not need to purchase a ticket however must sit on the lap of an adult.

Every two years Scone Grammar School presents a musical extravaganza to bring the School together to offer a different range of experiences for students and to celebrate the talents of students through musical theatre.

The School has been very grateful for the behind-the-scenes talents of school families who have been involved in many a working bee making the fabulous props and costumes for the Musical.

Tia Gabriellah - The Joy of Colour

For Muswellbrook artist Tia Gabriellah, painting which began as a form of therapy has grown to become her all-consuming passion, herself redefined as an artist.

She holds the firm belief that art has the power to heal and bring joy to the world; her colourful impasto landscape and flower paintings, in oils or acrylics on canvas, designed to transport the viewer to a place of beauty.

Illumination - Muswellbrook High School Photography Students

Muswellbrook High School students explore ways in which the history of the invisible or the forgotten can be illuminated and documented through the medium of photography.

Travelling to the Biennale of Sydney to experience the international festival of contemporary art, the students visited Cockatoo Island and documented various aspects of the location as a place of change and diverse histories.

Artwork on exhibition until 1 July 2018.

Devil Ark announces the birth of Tassie devil joeys

The Barrington Tops Devil Ark has welcomed the first Tasmanian devil joeys of the season.

The joeys are estimated to be 70 - 80 days old, and Stella is already proving to be a fantastic mother! The joeys were revealed to be two girls and one boy. Each Tasmanian devil gives birth to over 30 small joeys, but only the first 4 that attach to the teat will survive, so even from a very young age it is survival of the fittest. The joeys are only a few months old but will stay in the pouch for another few months; they will then leave the pouch, before moving onto mum's back. They are expected to become fully independent around December, ready to do their part for the breeding population at Devil Ark.

Keep our schools beautiful

Public schools in the Upper Hunter Shire are taking advantage of a free program to teach students about waste and recycling, through visits from Keep Australia Beautiful NSW EnviroMentors in early June.

The Keep Australia Beautiful NSW EnviroMentors offer children a fun and creative learning environment with games and props to keep children engrossed and actively engaged. One of the lessons on offer is 'Lunches Unwrapped' where students explore the environmental implications of using different materials to package foods, and the best alternatives to single use packaging.

Comedy: Heading up this year's list of comedians at next month's Pigsty in July is none other than AARON GOCS, who has fast become one of the country's most beloved comics and documenters of Australian culture. Image is courtesy of Dashville.

The Pig Day Out

How does an all-day boutique dinner party with great food, live music and comedy sound?

That's exactly what's on offer when Dashville hosts their boss hog of events - Pigsty in July (aka The Pig Day Out) on July 7.

An ideal setting for friends to catch up, with loads of live music and comedy, a second-hand formal dress code, succulent food, top-shelf grog and a few toasty bonfires for good measure. One of the comedians performing is Aaron Gocs.

Aaron's unique, individual comedy involves short, quirky stories and anecdotes. He covers a range of material that he observes happening in this wacky world of ours.
