Schools can't apply but school Parents and Citizens' Associations can.

Arts Upper Hunter can assist with developing project ideas, sourcing artists, pay rates, budgets and explaining the online application form. Not all applicants will need help but all applicants must discuss their application with Arts Upper Hunter before lodgement.

Applications close at 5pm on Friday 3rd August 2018. For further information, call Arts Upper Hunter on 6541 4776. For guidelines and application form visit www.regionalartsnsw.com.au/grants/casp

Sustainable solutions in the shire

SUSTAIN: It was a packed library for the first workshop on Water Wise Gardening by Jeff and Joan Esdaile so book your place now for upcoming workshops on composting, worm farming and 'living off the grid'.

Upper Hunter Shire Council is offering a number of free services and information sessions to help residents live more sustainably. Composting, Worm Farming, and Living Off the Grid are some of the workshops coming up in the next few months. Bookings are essential. Council's Sustainability and Environment Manager Melinda Hale said the regular free workshops were based on topics central to Council's draft Sustainability Action Plan.

If you are interested, register early as the first workshop on water wise gardening held in May attracted a packed crowd. For more information contact Manager Sustainability and Environment, Melinda Hale on 6540 1328

Capturing the spirit of Scottish culture

The Aberdeen Highland Games are about more than impressive tests of strengths and the majesty of piped bands, music and dance feature prominently throughout the day and into the evening as well.

The sight and sound of highland country dancers encapsulates the very essence of Scotland with the bagpipes accompanying a kilted dancer, swaying and pirouetting to traditional airs. You will see them perform many classic highland dances including the Sword Dance, the Highland Fling and the Seann Trubhas. If the inspiration strikes, you can try your hand at Scottish dancing at the Ceilidh that night. If bush dancing is more your style, don't fear, the Kent Daniels Bush Band will regale the crowd at the Scottish-themed after party to be held at Scone High School on Saturday Night. With a passion and commitment to keeping alive the tradition of Australian bush music, the band delivers a professional quality performance of traditional, Celtic and contemporary folk music - if you don't know the steps, you soon will!

For pre-ticket sales to the Aberdeen Highland Games contact 6540 1300.

Scone Literary Festival

A magical line-up is planned for this year's Scone Literary Festival, in keeping with this year's theme of 'the magic and power of literature.' Now in its fifth year, the only writer's festival in the Upper Hunter has grown from strength to strength from what initially was the idea of a few like-minded bookworms, writers and bush poets.

This year, local treasure Phillip Adams will be in conversation with Guardian Australian journalist and author David Marr, fellow broadcaster Barry Jones and Sydney Morning Herald investigative journalist and Gold Walkley winner Kate McClymont.

Adding even more girl power to the stellar line up is Tracey Spicer who will be talking about her involvement in leading the Now Australia movement and her new 'laugh-out-loud 'femoir' "The Good Girl Stripped Bare.

To read all about all of the authors and sessions that feature on the program please visit sconewritersfestival.com.au. Tickets go on sale on 1st of September.

Aberdeen's Golden Oldies

They say gentlemen prefer blondes and you might find out why when the Hunter Museum of Rural Life screens the Marilyn Monroe and Jane Russell classic of the same title for Aberdeen Golden Oldies on July 10.

Auditorium doors at the Aberdeen Sports and Recreation Club open at 11.30am and a three-course luncheon will be served prior to the screening of the movie. A donation of $10 is requested to cover costs.

As numbers are limited, early bookings are essential and can be made by telephoning Daphne 65 43 8356.

Andy-coot steals hearts

One of Aussie Arks newest additions to the endangered species program, 'Andy-Coot the Bandicoot' has set out to steal everybody's heart.

The Southern Brown Bandicoot, Andy-Coot, is being hand raised by Aussie Ark keepers after his mother rejected him at a young age. Keeps have to feed him every three hours and weigh him regularly, and they're looking forward to releasing him into a wild enclosure in a few weeks' time when he's strong enough. Andy-Coot is the first bandicoot raised by keepers at Devil Ark.

Children's bike park underway

Work to build a children's bike track at Amaroo Park in Scone is progressing well. The new bike park will include a track, roundabout, line marking and signage for little ones to ride their bikes while learning about road safety.

The facility will officially open on July 27. Scone Neighbourhood Resource Centre is now in discussions with Council about plans to construct a toilet block on the site.

First snowfall at Devil Ark

The recent cold weather which brought snow to the Barrington Tops might have been a little cold for humans, but the resident Tasmanian devils and Devil Ark loved it.

Keepers say the endangered animals playing in the snow was a sight to behold, following the first snowfall at the sanctuary in two years. The falls have been reported as some of the best in decades on the tops, with the white blanket staying on the ground for more than a week in parts after it stopped falling.

Karoola Dog Park Open Day with Pet Medical

By Dr Chelsea Whytcross BVS

On Saturday, June 16 the Pet Medical team attended the Karoola Dog Park Open Day. The dog park is a new off-lead park for the Muswellbrook dog community. The park has 4 fenced-in areas for dogs of different sizes and needs. There is a small dog area, large dog area, solo dog area and agility area which provides adequate space for dogs to socialise and have fun safely.

The event saw many dog lovers from the community attend with all dogs happy and excited to be present.

Pet Medical provided signage on dog body language to help users of the park try and understand what their dog may be saying to other dogs while they are playing in the park.

It is so important that owners can understand how their dog is feeling and when to intervene and let their dog settle down or give other dogs some space.

We handed out informative flyers to people on dog body language and dog stress signals. We were also there to answer any dog behaviour related questions and give advice. The Pet Medical Behaviour Team is passionate about your dog's mental health and wellbeing.

The opening of this dog park means that the dog owners in the community will have a place to take their dogs to develop socialisation skills, run off-lead and to learn to focus on their owners when they are in an off-lead area. Obviously puppies that have not had their full vaccination course are not safe to take to the park as well as dogs that have problems socialising with other dogs.
