Simone Easthope returns to the UHCM

One of the Upper Hunter's finest musical products, Simone Easthope, will return home to give a concert at the Upper Hunter Conservatorium of Music on Saturday August 25 at 7.30pm.

Simone has enjoyed an illustrious career overseas and is a graduate of New York's prestigious Julliard. Simone will be accompanied by her husband, renowned pianist Benjamin Moser and the Newcastle Youth Orchestra when she presents Mostly Mozart to what promises to be a strong hometown crowd.

You can find all the booking details on the Upper Hunter Conservatorium website.

Art auction to aid local drought appeal

Scone Rotary Club is turning to art to raise money to help our farmers as they battle the worst drought in living memory.

The club will hold a Pre-Loved Art Auction at Scone Arts and Crafts at 6.30pm on Friday August 24. The doors will open at 6pm for viewing with the art to go under the hammer from 6.30pm with the very talented auctioneer, Jim Callinan. The organisers are still taking donations, if you have some unwanted art lying around why not donate it to our farms? You can drop it off at Hunt-A-Book, Kelly Street, Scone by Wednesday August 22.

President of the Rotary Club of Scone, Lindy Hunt said, "Rotary is truly an organisation that supports the local community. This art auction is another way for us to demonstrate this, and to help local people. We hope to receive as many donations as possible and that people might come along and buy some art as well. Now is as good a time as any to brighten up your home with some new art."

Finger food will be provided at the auction with drinks available at $5 each. Entry fee is via a gold coin donation. For further information contact Hunt-A-Book in Scone on 6545 9330.

Do you have a great script sitting inside you, but no idea how to get it out? Award-winning filmmaker John O'Brien will be holding a scriptwriting workshop as part of the Dungog Arts Festival.

Online classes are taking place now ahead of a face-to-face workshop on September 29.

The workshops are for anyone from beginner to rank professional, with a screen concept including short film, feature film, TV series or web series. Get a toolbox full of great tips and hints, and develop a scene in this script-writing adventure.

Meet the author, Beryl Crosher-Segers

Save the date for September 4 when Muswellbrook and Denman Libraries will host a special author talk.

It is a remarkable story of her resilience. Her debut novel, A Darker Shade of Pale is a one-of-a-kind, and her colour and style of seeing the world is decorated with an unquestionable way that makes it her own.

Beryl will appear at Muswellbrook Library at 11am and Denman Library at 2.30pm on Tuesday September 4.

Ladies – it's time to celebrate!

Get out your favourite fascinator and saddle up for a big and bright day of racing when Muswellbrook Race Club holds its annual Godolphin Ladies Day Out on Sunday September 9.

This is always a great day to grab your girlfriends and enjoy some fantastic country racing at one of the most picturesque country race clubs in NSW - all while sipping on some wonderful Two Rivers wines. Gate entry is free on this day. The Two Rivers ladies luncheon will again be a popular option, or if you want something more relaxed organise a lawn platter or get something from the cafe. There will be plenty of giveaways and 'Fashions On The Field' so come on out for a fantastic spring racing day!

For further information visit:
www.muswellbrookraceclub.com.au and see advertisement on page 8.

If you love Slim, you'll love Jason Carruthers!

Calling all Slim Dusty fans! Renowned country music artist Jason Carruthers will be performing a tribute show to the king of Australian country music at the Aberdeen Bowling Club on September 21.

Carruthers was raised on the land and pure country is a natural thing for him. The artist is gaining his place as one of Australia's favourite bush balladeers and leading traditional country artists. Jason is currently finishing his first album "Australia The Land Of Extremes" and has performed on big shows at Tamworth with artists such as Graham Rodger and won a number of talent quests. Jason is making his mark in Australian country music being a sought after artist for the traditional ballad style of music. His music is traditional, yet fresh, and modern at the same time.

For an authentic traditional Australian country sound, look no further than Bush Ballad singer/ songwriter, Jason Carruthers.

Free workshop for all ages and artistic abilities

On Saturday 18 August @ 10.30 am experiment with creating simple leaf prints that can be used for collage, card making or display in a delightful botanical artwork series at the Muswellbrook Regional Arts Centre.

Exhibiting artist Maude Butta will encourage participants of all ages and artistic abilities to explore the diversity of artworks that can be achieved using elementary print making techniques.

Reptile Park celebrates turning 60

This year marked the 60th birthday for the Australian Reptile Park at Somersby.

The Reptile Park held a two-week long birthday extravaganza during the school holidays. It was a momentous occasion with a range of birthday activities including a jumping castle, mega slide, face painting, fairy floss and limited edition merchandise, and was attended by friends, media, VIPs, family and guests of the Central Coast wildlife sanctuary.

Treetops adventure

A sky-high maze of tree houses connected by nets and slides will be the newest tourist attraction on the Central Coast following a NSW Government grant win by the Treetops Adventure Park.

The Park will receive $149,000 from the Regional Tourism Fund. The Regional Tourism Fund is part of the NSW Government's record funding commitment of $43 million over four years.

For more information on the Regional Tourism Fund go to, www.destinationnsw.com.au/regionaltourismfund

Newcastle Airport to New Zealand

The Hunter region is set to welcome more international visitors, with Virgin Australia confirmed to commence direct flights to Newcastle Airport from Auckland on a seasonal basis.

From November the three-hour flights will operate on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Sundays at a cost of $350 one way.

Federal Minister for Infrastructure and Transport, Michael McCormack, unveiled the new route in a ceremony at the airport recently, with the service seeing VA the first carrier to provide an international service from the upgraded Newcastle Airport terminal.

Explore NSW roads

Last month Minister for Tourism and Major Events Adam Marshall announced a new $2 million NSW road trips campaign designed to disperse visitors from highways across the state into regional and rural towns and boost their visitor economy.

These road trips follow itineraries that let you explore at your own pace. There are many adventures to choose from. Get started with the best tips on where to go and what to see, and find your ideal NSW road trip.

All the fun of the fair

Don't miss the family-friendly celebration at the Broke Village Fair on Sunday 9th September from 9am - 3pm.

The Broke Village Fair draws around 5,000 happy fair goers to the normally sleepy village, with non-stop toe tappin' action at centre stage to the vintage and classic cars and trucks display. It's all set in the rural village with over 11 cellar doors nearby and some within walking distance of the Fair.

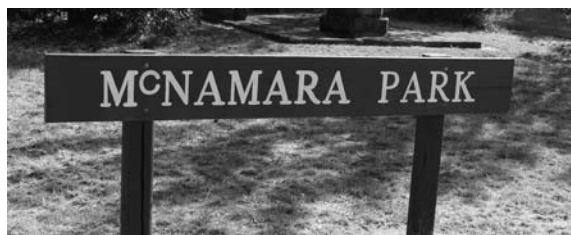

Bigger and better Scenic Cableway

Scenic World is set to enhance its visitor experience with a $4 million dollar upgrade of their Scenic Cableway.

The new cableway cabin will be 25 per cent larger with bigger windows and a reconfigured cabin to improve viewing of the iconic Three Sisters and beyond. The 510 metre journey gently descends into the Jamison Valley and also returns visitors to the top of the escarpment. The Cableway's fully enclosed cabin provides a unique vantage point for viewing the Three Sisters, Orphan Rock, Mt Solitary and Katoomba Falls. Disembark at the bottom station to access the Scenic Walkway and stroll through 2.4 kilometres of Jurassic rainforest.

McNamara Park closed to the public

McNamara Park at Broke will be temporarily closed from Friday 17 August to Sunday 19 August 2018 for the purpose of conducting a cultural cool fire burn to exterminate weeds and regenerate native plants.

Singleton Council, supported by Bulga Coal in conjunction with the Broke Bulga Landcare Group and Local Land Services, have engaged the services of Koori Country Firesticks Aboriginal Corporation with support from NSW Rural Fire Service (RFS) to undertake the cultural burn. The traditional Aboriginal methods of controlled cool burning will be conducted at the southern area of the park from the toilet block towards Milbrodale Road.

The park will be closed to residents and campers and only those people involved in the burn will be permitted onsite.

Alternative camping options are available at the recreation grounds at Bulga, Warkworth and Jerrys Plains.

Garden Blitz competition winner

Students from Singleton Heights Public school will be able to tour the world via their brand new garden, as winners of the Garden Organics Garden Blitz competition.

Community groups, schools and preschools in the Singleton local government area were invited to apply for the free garden makeover in June this year, which will include the labour, landscape design, plants and mulch for their space.

Mayor of Singleton, Cr Sue Moore congratulated Singleton Heights Public on their submission, and said the Garden Blitz competition was a great opportunity for students to benefit from the collective effort Singleton has made in recycling their organic waste.

"The Garden Organics collection service has had tremendous success in Singleton in its first 18 months, with thousands of tonnes of green waste diverted from landfill," she said.

"The Garden Blitz is an exciting opportunity for the students of Singleton Heights Public to not only learn about the recycling process— from their Garden Organics bin to their new garden beds — but also for our community to benefit directly from our collective commitment to recycling green waste."

Aberdeen is already starting to buzz!

Text supplied by Peter Fitzsimmons

The next two weeks can't come fast enough for the Aberdeen Rugby League Football Club and its fans and supporters who are gearing up to host the 2018 Grand Final on Sunday August 26 at McKinnon Oval.

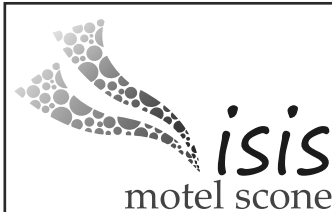

It will be the Club's first home Grand Final since 2010. The Club's teams have been ravaged by injuries throughout the season, but they have achieved wonderful results winning the Scanlon Shield and becoming minor premiers in First and Reserve Grades for the first time since 1949.

Major Semi day saw the return of Captain Coach Shane Hasselmann after 12 weeks out with a knee injury with his return helping to lift the team to a good win over arch rivals Scone to secure the home final.

The Reserve Grade boys will have to regroup after producing an uncharacteristic performance in going down to Scone last week but these boys know what they have to do and are confident in bouncing back.

The ARLFC committee and its supporters will be busy preparing 'The Den' over the next two weeks to make this grand final the biggest and best for a long time!

Cultural Activity Grants available

Image: King of the Ranges Stockman's Challenge is one of many non-profit community organisations to benefit from Cultural Activity Grant funding in the Upper Hunter Shire.

Non-profit community organisations in the Upper Hunter Shire who run cultural or art projects are invited to apply for funding from Upper Hunter Shire Council before 31 August 2018.

Each year Council awards dozens of Cultural Activity Grants (CAGs) to assist local non-profit organisations to promote and develop cultural and art resources and activities in the community.

They are open to incorporated, non-profit community based organisations from within the Upper Hunter Shire for innovative projects and partnerships.

Last year grants went to preschools, school P&Cs, festivals, historical societies and museums, and many other community organisations

Application form and guidelines are available on Council's website <http://upperhunter.nsw.gov.au/cultural-activity-grants.aspx> or from Council offices

For further information about these grants contact Community Services on 6540 1153.

MUSWELLBROOK CINEMA MOVIE REVIEW

THE MEG

Rated (M) 113 mins

Five years ago, expert sea diver and Naval Captain Jonas Taylor encountered an unknown danger in the unexplored recesses of the Mariana Trench that forced him to abort his mission and abandon half his crew. Though the tragic incident earned him a dishonourable discharge, what ultimately cost him his career, his marriage and any semblance of honour was his unsupported and incredulous claims of what caused it - an attack on his vessel by a mammoth, 70-foot sea creature, believed to be extinct for more than a million years.
