what's on

Attention festival and major event planners!

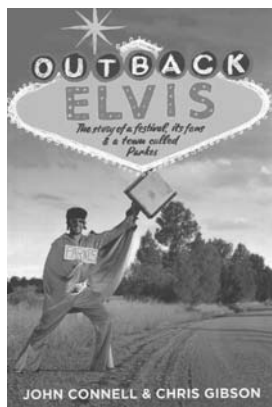

Festivals and major events are great for community and economic development but behind the scenes it's not always plain sailing.

The Upper Hunter Festival Forum is a networking event for stakeholders to share the ups and downs of organising local festivals.

Guest speaker is Professor John Connell from the University of Sydney, co-author of Outback Elvis, the story of a festival, its fans and a town called Parkes. The Parkes Elvis Festival is now listed in Frommer's 300 Unmissable Events & Festivals Around the World. Professor Connell and a panel of local festival stakeholders - Jan Fallding, Deidre Peebles, Nancy Knudsen and Ruaan Van Der Wath - will get discussion rolling on Upper Hunter successes, challenges and opportunities for a regional approach.

The forum will be held at Singleton Diggers Club, York Street Singleton, on Tuesday 18th September from 10 am to 1 pm. It's free and open to anyone but you must register with Arts Upper Hunter on 0409 382 509 or rado@artsupperhunter.com.au

Spring into Scone Country Markets

Spring is just around the corner and so is the Scone Country Markets!

This will be the last Scone Country Market for 2018 so don't miss it. There will be a delicious barbeque to raise much needed funds for our local farmers and Caffè Mobilita will be there with their coffee van for that morning coffee hit. It wouldn't be a spring-themed market without some cute and fluffy animals so we will also have a small petting zoo for the kids.

Come on up to the Scone Country Market on Saturday the 8th of September from 9.00am to 1.00pm at the Scone Visitor Information Centre, see you there!

Break out the popcorn

The 6th annual Blue Heeler Film Festival is just around the corner!

Pack up your picnic rug and popcorn and join festival patron Sigrid Thornton at Two Rivers Winery, Denman, on Saturday, September 22 to view the winning entries and congratulate the finalists.

The theme for this year's entries across the three categories was "River" and with substantial cash and other prizes and the coveted Gold Bluey Award to be won, competition was fierce.

The free community event is for all ages and runs from 4pm to 10pm. There will be live entertainment and a variety of stalls, food and drinks for sale. Two Rivers Winery will have wine for sale for those 18 years and over. All children under 15 years must be accompanied by an adult.

The Blue Heeler Film Festival is hosted by Muswellbrook Shire Council along with sponsors: Bengalla Mining Company, Harvey Norman Muswellbrook, Regional Australia Bank, Two Rivers Winery and Screen Hunter. Funding was also received from the Australian Government's Building Better Regions Fund.

Naomi Norris - Keeping it Local

Moving to Muswellbrook from Bourke five years ago, artist Naomi Norris was struck by the contrast between the two landscapes, so overwhelmed that she immediately began photographing the local area and contemplating an exhibition of artworks based on these photographs.

The body of work that has emerged, that includes paintings, works on paper and three dimensional artworks, reflect local issues - the obvious impacts of the coal industry as alluded to in High Vis Everywhere, the importance of buying local in Just Another Day, and the equine culture captured in The Best Seats.

Norris does not concentrate on any particular medium, subject matter or style in her practice as an artist.

While reflecting only a few short years as a local, Norris' Keeping it Local urges both locals and visitors to the area to take a closer look and share their own connections to the Hunter Valley.

Exhibiting at the Muswellbrook regional Arts Centre from 2 September to 21 October 2018. Opening night 6pm Saturday 1 September 2018.

New plans for Lake St Clair

A new kiosk, playground and multi-purpose meeting facility are some of the possibilities included in a draft Plan of Management for Lake St Clair recreation ground unveiled for public exhibition from Wednesday 29 August until 12 October 2018.

It also proposes to categorise the entire Lake St Clair Recreation Park area as "General Community Use".

Council's Manager Infrastructure Delivery, Damian Morris, said the aim of the draft Plan of Management was to create a unique destination for both residents and visitors, while maintaining the park's spacious and unspoilt ambience.

The draft Plan of Management proposes to maintain the maximum occupancy rate of 350 campers, in line with existing consent conditions, and approves the following Masterplan elements:

- Conversion of the existing camp kitchen into a kiosk (if viable)
- Development of one or two new covered kitchens
- Installation of playground and a multi-purpose meeting facility
- Upgrades to power supply and wastewaters systems

"Lake St Clair is a recreational hot-spot for locals and visitors alike. It's a place to relax and unwind, as well as a place for adventurers looking to turn up the action as a boating, fishing and water-skiing playground," Mr Morris said.

The draft plan can be viewed at singleton.nsw.gov.au/publicexhibition or in hardcopy at Council's Administration Building, Singleton Library, Singleton VIEC and Lake St Clair Caretaker's Cottage.

Submissions can be made in writing to the General Manager and posted to Singleton Council PO Box 314 Singleton NSW 233 or emailed to ssc@singleton.nsw.gov.au

Members of the community are also invited to attend a public hearing, facilitated by an independent consultant, on Thursday 13 September 2018 from 5.30pm at Council's Administration Building.

New initiative for Scone Literary Festival

The Scone Literary Festival isn't just about listening to great writers when they visit the Upper Hunter, it's also a chance for locals to flex their writing muscles.

The 'Check it out' writing competition is open to any staff working at any supermarket or retail chain in the Upper Hunter and invites budding storytellers to recount some of their funniest anecdotes of their experiences of working at the check-out with a great weekend away at Russley Rural Retreat to be won for the lucky winner. In addition to 'Check it out' the Upper Hunter High School writing competition makes its return with great prize money to be won. The high school writing competition is sponsored by McDonalds Scone and is open to all pupils studying at Scone High, Scone Grammar, St Josephs, Merriwa Central School and Muswellbrook High and opened in August 2018.

Regular events at Scone Arts & Crafts

The Scone Arts & Crafts hall is a vibrant hub full of great activities for everyone to enjoy.

Ladies yoga classes take place on Mondays, while Amy's Dance group also meets there twice a week. Drawing, painting, spinning and weaving groups meet there, and so does a sit and sew group. ADFAS and the Scone Bridge Club also use the space.

So much to do! For further information see the Scone Arts & Crafts Facebook page.

Meet the author

Noel Braun (pictured) embarked on a spiritual quest of self-discovery after the suicide of his wife Maris.

His most recent book 'I Guess I'll Just Keep on Walking' is a sequel to his earlier book where the spiritual and physical merge with the ancient and the modern. Noel undertook these pilgrimages in his late 70s and early 80s.

Take the opportunity to meet this inspiring man at Muswellbrook Library on Tuesday 9 October at 11am. For further information contact Muswellbrook Library on 6543 1913.

Life drawing

Sharpen your pencils and your life drawing skills with Scone Arts and Crafts Inc.

Life drawing classes are coming back on alternate Wednesdays beginning on September 19. The subject won't just be body form drawing, but will also include painting, costume and portrait drawing. Students will work towards an exhibition later this year or early next year.

For further information contact Suellen on 0428 609 309.

Council's drought assistance hub is ready to help

A drought assistance hub to put people in touch with the help they need as the dry takes a toll on Singleton farmers is now officially operational.

Singleton Council has partnered with a range of stakeholders to be a conduit between Singleton farmers and the services available to rural producers to make finding help easier.

Singleton Library and Singleton Visitor Information and Enterprise Centre are available during business hours on weekdays for people to come in for a cup of a tea and a chat to find out what assistance is available, and to use computers or connect to the internet to register for help.

Mayor of Singleton, Cr Sue Moore said it was amazing to see the outpouring of support and fundraising for farmers across the country, and the sense of community spirit was just as strong in Singleton.

"The aim of Council's drought assistance hub is to be a first point of contact so people can be connected to the right organisation according to the help they need.

Council's Customer Service teams have undertaken training this week to best be able to help the people who may come through the door or pick up the phone on Monday.

"Last month was the second hottest July on record, and the driest since 2002, continuing a 15-month run of below-average rainfall across NSW – so it's going to take a fair bit of good hard rain to break it," Cr Moore said.

"You can contact us at Council, and we can tell you what's available and how to find the people you need."

Crowdfunding campaign to save endangered "Bum Breather" launched

Not-for-profit organisation Aussie Ark in conjunction with The Australian Reptile Park, is on the road to helping save the endangered Manning River turtle with help from a crowdfunding campaign.

This quirky little turtle is also known as the "bum breather" because it has the ability to breathe through its bum, up to half of their oxygen is obtained this way. Recognised by reptile experts as Australia's oldest turtle species, the Manning River turtle is thought to have existed for 55 million years. This endangered species of turtle is endemic to the mid-north coast of New South Wales (NSW) and is restricted to the middle and upper stretches of the Manning River catchment area - it is not found anywhere else on Earth.

The crowdfunding got off to a strong start with almost $5,000 raised in under 24 hours. More information at www.aussieark.org.au

Price agreement for the sale of Wallaby Scrub Road

Wallaby Scrub Road will be sold after Singleton Council agreed on a purchase price to sell the former road corridor to adjoining landholders Warkworth Mining Limited and Miller Pohang Coal Company subject to publication of the notice of road closure in the NSW Gazette.

A purchase price of $27.5 million (including GST) plus costs was agreed recently. The proposal to close the road was driven by the Mt Thorley Continuation Project, which required the acquisition of the Wallaby Scrub Road corridor to continue operations. Council's role as the road authority was to consider the impacts of the closure from a roads management perspective. It was not to consider the mine expansion completed by the Planning Assessment Commission.

Singleton Library to launch the sweetest collection

Singleton Public Library will launch their sweetest collection yet, with the unveiling of a new novelty cake tin collection at a special Book Week-themed Storytime on Wednesday morning.

Singleton Library is the first location in the Hunter to offer library members the chance to borrow novelty cake tins for free. The Library's novelty cake tin collection includes 70 different shapes from Mickey Mouse and 3D castles to Darth Vader.

Council's Coordinator Community Services Nicole Lonsdale said the collection would offer library members the opportunity to unleash their inner MasterChef without the cost of purchasing tins.

"Novelty cake tins can be very expensive to buy – anywhere from $20 and $60 – and it's difficult to justify the expense if it's a shape that might only be used once or twice, and then takes up valuable cupboard space in the kitchen," she said.

"This collection enables our library members to borrow a tin to create a special cake without the cost of buying one – this is just another way our library is challenging the traditional concept of what a library has to offer.

"Book Week provides the opportunity to celebrate the joy of books and reading with a focus on Australian authors and illustrators.

"Everyone is welcome to come along and enjoy hearing some of the best children's books come alive at Storytime."

Book Week is run annually by the Children's Book Council of Australia. This year's Book Week theme is 'Find Your Treasure'. Storytime takes place at the Singleton Library each Wednesday morning at 10am. The cake tin library is available to all members of Singleton Library.

Dashville Skyline festival launches 40-track compilation album in support of drought relief

Sparse rains fell over parts of NSW last weekend. It was a small change to an otherwise devastating situation. Already burdened by the major supermarkets, the weight of the worst drought we've seen in 50 years is in full effect and has a huge section of those living on the land doing it tougher than ever, both on the farms and in the home.

Thankfully there's a large community of individuals and organisations working hard to rally support and raise funds to help regional Australia survive. Dashville want to pitch in and do their bit to be part of this community and show Australian farmers that they care.

Make it Rain, is a whopping 40-song, two-CD compilation full of Skyline performers, from world-renowned artists like The Waifs and C.W. Stoneking, to rising stars like Ben Leece, Grace Turner, The San Sebastian and Ruby Gilbert. This is a stunning catalogue of music, which will be sold with 100% of profits going direct to farming families via the Country Womens Association of New South Wales.

Copies of Make it Rain can be pre-purchased via Dashville's official online store and collected at the festival, or can be purchased and posted to punters who can't make the big party on September 28 to 30.

Unfolding over the Labour Day long weekend, the fourth instalment of Dashville Skyline will feature three full days of country inspired activity, combined with over 40 live performances, one by one over two stages.

For further information visit www.dashville.com.au

Image: Newcastle-based James Thomson will join the elite ranks of the Dashville Skyline artist roster supporting Australian farmers with the compilation album – Make it Rain.

Legendary Bushwackers – true Aussie talent

Australia's best-known, best-loved Australiana band, The Bushwackers, are heading for Dashville.

In 2018 The Bushwackers celebrate 47 years of performances. There have been 95 band members, 25 studio albums, four books, tours, awards and enough stories to fill a dozen books. The Bushwackers latest album, The Hungry Mile, was nominated in five categories in the 2018 Golden Guitars.

They'll bring fun and an Aussie feel to the laid back Dashville Skyline festival at Belford on the Labour Day long weekend next month.

ENDURING OUTFIT: The Bushwackers (pictured) have been described by Rolling Stone as 'The Australian Band' and are heading to the Dashville Skyline.
