theBar opens

In a boost for the Scone business district theBar café swung open its doors on Saturday 1 September.

The opening comes hot on the footsteps of the Civic Theatre unveiling its façade and continues the momentum towards the revitalisation of Scone.

After eight years running kerv Espresso Bar, owners of the new café John Ryan & Taka Toriyabe decided to branch out in a new direction to capitalise on the opportunities they anticipate will come with the bypass of Scone.

"With the bypass in motion and the plans for revitalisation, the main street has become a very attractive place to be," said Mr Ryan.

"We're looking across to the splendid Civic Theatre and with Council planning a walkway arcade with a themed garden right next door to theBar, opening up a business in Kelly Street became a good business decision.

"The bypass has been talked about for such a long time, and in our first few days of operation we're seeing a buzz and excitement about the potential for Scone now construction is actually underway."

theBar will have a strong community focus, with a long communal table as a feature of the café.

"We want theBar to be a meeting place for everyone. We're aiming to create a space for people to come together, for strangers to meet, to sit down and have a chat. The need to connect and talk is always important but it seems even more so during these times lacking rainfall."

theBar is also looking to use local produce wherever possible.

"We've got a seven year old girl lined up to sell us her eggs, another farmer will be bringing in his pumpkins during the season and we're always open to local producers approaching us, no matter how big or small."

Scone Chamber of Commerce President David Luck says the current activity in the Kelly Street points to exciting times ahead for the town.

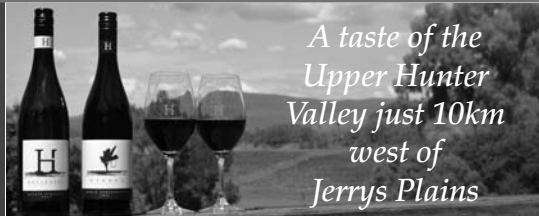

"We're starting to see businesses like theBar make the move into Kelly Street and they'll be well established by the time the bypass is completed. There's certainly a vibe starting to build that is already livening up the town," Mr Luck said.

Lithography Workshop with Naomi Norris

Join exhibiting artist, Naomi Norris for a FREE workshop at the Muswellbrook Regional Arts Centre, on Saturday 22 September at 10.30am.

Lithography is a versatile print medium that incorporates direct drawing techniques to produce beautiful prints with a unique aesthetic that can be combined with other printmaking processes, drawing and watercolours. Naomi Norris will introduce workshop participants to 'kitchen lithography' - a quick, non-toxic and simplified method of creating lithographic prints using basic household materials.

Bookings are essential. For a full list of materials and to register call 02 6549 3800.

Scone Short Film Festival

Scone FilmFest is an annual short film festival that brings a little bit of Sydney's Tropfest or Flickerfest to Scone. It's unique to the area, bringing award-winning, world class Australian films, some of which have screened around the world, to Scone. The festival will be held Saturday 22 and Sunday 23 September.

Now in its tenth year, the festival only screens Australian short films. There is something for everyone, with a range of films from comedy, music video, animation to drama.

Experience a film-lover's delight, with the films including Liv Hewson, Boori Monty Prior, John Wood and Dan Wyllie.

Tickets available NOW from Huntatbook in Scone or online at www.sconefilms.org.au

Key Note Speaker: Professor Alan Broadfoot

Muswellbrook Chamber of Commerce breakfast will host key note speaker: Professor Alan Broadfoot. The breakfast will be held Tuesday 9 October, 7am - 9am. At the Tertiary Education Centre, Hill Street Muswellbrook.

Prof Alan Broadfoot is well known for his innovations in industry and is currently the Executive Director of the Newcastle Institute for Energy and Resources (NIER) at the University of Newcastle, a position he has held since 2010. Charged with an ambitious agenda linking industry and academia for transformational research in energy and resources efficiency, productivity and sustainability, Alan's strategic direction and enterprising leadership has promoted a number of new and exciting initiatives at NIER, aligned to emerging challenges and national priorities associated with the sector.

Alan holds a Doctor of Philosophy, Master of Engineering and Bachelor of Electrical Engineering (Honours) from the University of Newcastle and has forged a solid career (in engineering and business management) since graduating. An Electrical Engineer in various roles from 1985, Alan joined leading electrical design and manufacturing company, Ampcontrol in 1991 and held a number of senior management positions, including Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer from 2005 – 2010. Under Alan's stewardship, the company grew substantially to twenty-six companies worldwide.

In 2006 he was awarded Engineers Australia's Professional Engineer of the Year. He is a Fellow of the Institution of Engineers Australia and was Chair of the Australian Industry Group Hunter Manufacturing Council from 2004 to 2009. He is a Graduate Member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors, a Fellow of The Royal Society of New South Wales and sits on a number of executive industry and research advisory committees, including the NSW Innovation and Productivity Council and the NTCP (India) Energy Technology Research Advisory Council. He is also the Director of the NSW Energy and Resources Knowledge Hub.

Cost is $30 for members, $35 for non-members. Please RSVP to Katherine on info@muswellbrookchamber.com.au by 11:00 am Friday 5th October.

Singleton Show

Singleton Show is on again on September 21 and 22, with the horse show on the 23rd. A big line up of exciting events and attractions are on the cards.

The main events will kick off with the Bullride, followed by entertainment from Tailgate Drive. Saturday afternoon / evening is also not to be missed with many great events taking place in the main arena.

There will also be plenty for all ages to see and do along Side Show Alley, throughout the various pavilion displays, and animal competitions in the arena, along with the Working Dog Trials on Saturday morning.

The little ones shouldn't miss the displays from the Happy Tooth Reptiles & Oakvale Animal Nursery.

One of the highlights of the event will be the Australian Wife Carrying Titles, the winning duo of the Australian Wife Carrying Titles at the 2018 Singleton Show will win a chance to represent Australia at the World Wife Carrying Titles in Finland in July 2019.

Tickets are only $15 for adults, aged pensioner $10, child 13-16 years $10, 5-12 years $5, and under 5 years free. Family passes (2 adults and 2 children) are $40.

For more information on the Singleton Show, check out our website www.singletonshow.com or like our 'Singleton Showground' facebook page.

Image: Without a doubt the crowd favourite this year will be the famous Rooftop Express and their 'Heroes of the Outback' Show. A first class arena spectacular that features awe-inspiring horsemanship, world first stunts and true blue Australian comedy.

One week to Dashville

LEGENDARY: The Waifs will headline Dashville Skyline festival in September.
Image by Jarrad Seng.

There's just one week until we return to the cosmic vibes of Dashville Skyline for another year. We can almost taste the brews and barbecue. We can almost hear the sweet sounds of one of Australia's favourite musical acts, The Waifs will make their way to Belford as they visit for their only NSW show along with C.W. Stoneking as he makes his long-awaited Dashville return. Over 40 acts across three days.

Lots of great vintage women's fashions plus henna tattoos. Lifeline will also have a great op-shop stall too. If you haven't grabbed your tickets yet, it's time to lock in and treat yourself to three glorious days of music, friends, food and good times. Grab a full weekend ticket or get a taste of the experience with a day ticket.

Make it Rain, is a whopping 40-song, two-CD compilation full of Skyline performers, from world-renowned artists like The Waifs and C.W. Stoneking, to rising stars like Ben Leece, Grace Turner, The San Sebastian and Ruby Gilbert. Which will be sold with 100% of profits going direct to farming families via the Country Womens Association of New South Wales. Copies can be pre-purchased via Dashville's official online store and collected at the festival, or can be purchased and posted to punters who can't make the event.

This year's Dashville Skyline festival – 28, 29 and 30 September over the Labour Day long weekend - is one not to be missed. For further enquiries and ticket sales visit www.dashvilleskyline.com.au
