Coming soon to Muswellbrook and Denman

Australian fiction author John J Byrnes is coming to Muswellbrook and Denman to give talks for his book 'In for a Pound'.

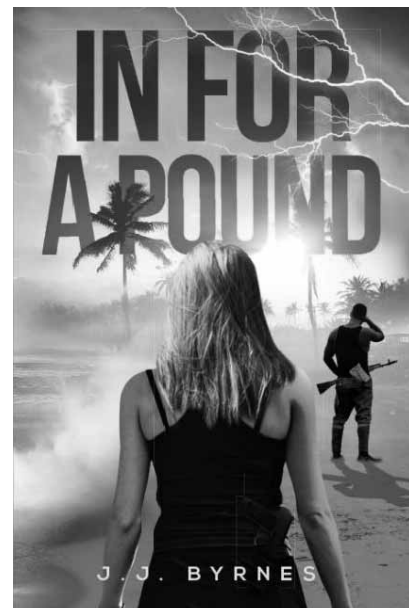

John has had a varied career that has provided him with insight into the diverse lives of others. John now resides on the mid-north coast of NSW with his wife and three children.

'In for a Pound' is a crime adventure story set in South East Asia and Australia. It is also a travel adventure story that explores gender, diversity and refugee issues.

The book explores the darker side of life and features flawed, unconventional characters. The central character is a young woman struggling against adversity and the elements while looking for connection and meaning in her life. Her journey is one of loss and gain as she struggles to triumph while being relentlessly pursued by vicious criminals across a range of exotic locations.

Talks will be held on Tuesday 13 November at Denman and Muswellbrook libraries. Session times: Muswellbrook Library 11am, Denman Library 2.30pm. Light refreshments will be served.

For bookings contact us on 6543 1913 (Muswellbrook) or 6547 2208 (Denman).

ADFAS Lecture

Lecturer Martin Ellis will be presenting 'Art, Power & Money: the Life and World of Matthew Bolton' on Tuesday 9 October, 5.30pm at Scone Arts & Crafts Centre Scone.

Matthew Bolton was one of the most extraordinary figures of the 18th century. An entrepreneur and industrialist of brilliance, a visionary who changed the nature of manufacturing, Bolton stands at the very centre of the industrial and intellectual revolution which laid the foundations of the modern world.

Martin is an experienced curator, lecturer and broadcaster. He has wide-ranging expertise in the applied arts and has acted as a specialist advisor to research programmes and universities.

Visitors are most welcome at $25.

what's on

Bush poetry, crime and steamy sex scenes feature at the 2018 Scone Literary Festival

From bush poetry to steamy sex scenes, crime writing and conversations with living legends, this year's Scone Literary Festival has it all.

With the theme of 'The Magic and Power of Literature', the festival will take place over the weekend of November 10 and 11 and will feature celebrated authors such as David Marr talking about Patrick White's literary legacy, Meg Keneally on crime and Tracey Spicer talking about the #metoo movement and her new book, 'The Girl Stripped Bare.'

"Our little festival has come a long way in a few short years, and we're very proud of this year's stellar line-up," said Janie Jordan, Festival President. "This has to be the best value writer's festival with a weekend pass at just $55.00 – a bargain for all this fun!"

"Bookings are open now and selling fast, so get in quickly to secure your place over the weekend, particularly for Sunday morning when we host a Bush Poet's breakfast to support our drought affected farmers."

Scone-based, local living legend, Phillip Adams will be in conversation with fellow living legend, former politician and broadcaster, Barry Jones. Phillip will also interview David Marr as the headliner on Day One of the festival.

Food also features with Patrice Newell hosting a panel on 'Storytelling through Food' featuring food writers and celebrated cooks, including Caroline Beecham, Barbara Sweeney, Cathy Armstrong and Nicholas Jordan.

Author and journalist, Benjamin Law will host the 'steamy sex scenes' panel with Pamela Cook, Diana Thompson and Michelle Douglas who will discuss how you approach writing an erotic scene in a romantic novel.

"This is sure to be a page-turner," said Jordan. "No doubt, Benjamin will be hilarious sharing relationship dilemmas, life dramas, and other people's fantasies as he moderates this fascinating panel."

Diversity features too with Perth-based writer, Shokoofeh Azar and local artist and author, Hanna Kay. Shokoofeh will headline the popular Saturday Soiree which will feature music and a magic act.

See www.sconewritersfestival.com.au for the full program.

Tickets for this fabulous festival are on sale now, and start at $55 for the full weekend – book at www.trybooking.com

Spring School Holiday Armature + Polymer Clay Workshop

Muswellbrook Regional Arts Centre will be hosting a free workshop for ages 8-18, 10.30am-12.30pm Friday 12 October 2018.

A spider, a dancer, an alien creature, a pair of magpies. Dream it up, create it!

Be inspired by the work of exhibiting artist Naomi Norris and her sculpture 'Father & Son' and then twist and shape wire and foil to create an armature - a framework - of your own imagination onto which you will mould and sculpt polymer clay to bring the sculpture to life.

Bookings are essential. To register call 02 6549 3800 or email arts.centre@muswellbrook.nsw.gov.au

Time to hit the greens for the TransCare Annual Barefoot Bowls Night Fundraiser

All the action from the 2017 TransCare Annual Barefoot Bowls fundraiser.

Sights are set on the greens being full and the auction and raffle being hot competition at the TransCare Annual Barefoot Bowls Night Fundraiser.

Save the date Thursday October 18 to join in with the action at the Scone Bowling Club.

"TransCare would like to invite the community to join us for a fun night on, and off, the greens," TransCare Promotions Officer Jemma Anshaw said.

"You don't need to be a seasoned bowler to participate, or you might just want to come along to the raffle and auction.

"Every year we are blown away by the support from the community and local businesses who get behind TransCare by making donations, we know times are hard and appreciate everything we receive.

"We have some really great items on their way for the auction, including a voucher and gaming console from Wideland Motor Group, as well as a voucher from Anytime Fitness Scone."

Proceeds from the event will go towards providing services and programs in the Muswellbrook and Upper Hunter Shire. At present TransCare is focused on improving senior's confidence with technology and the internet through the Be Connected program which will be launched in October.

If you would like to register a team or make a donation for the TransCare Annual Barefoot Bowls Night Fundraiser email jemma@transcare.org.au or call 0409 780 650, or call into the office at 214 Kelly Street Scone.

MUSWELLBROOK CINEMA MOVIE REVIEW

THE HOUSE WITH A CLOCK IN ITS WALLS

Rated (PG) 99 mins

Lewis Barnavelt, after losing his parents, is sent to Michigan to live with his uncle Jonathan. He discovers his uncle is a warlock, and enters a world of magic and sorcery. But this power is not limited to good people: Lewis learns of Isaac Izard, an evil wizard who wanted to cause the Apocalypse so that he could see what happened afterwards. To do this, he constructed a magical clock with black magic, as long as it exists it will keep ticking, counting down to doomsday. He died before he could finish the clock, but he hid the clock in his house, where Uncle Jonathan now lives. Now Lewis and Jonathan must find the clock before it's too late, and before Isaac's wife, Selena, gets to it.

Revival of Aberdeen Scout Group

A Community Meeting to be held at 7pm on Friday 16th November at Aberdeen Bowling Club, to seek support to revive Aberdeen Scout Group.

Aberdeen Scout Group closed in mid 2017 when the Leaders in the Group retired. Hunter Valley District of Scouts Australia is arranging a meeting to seek interest from the community for support to recommence activities for young people in the Aberdeen district with Scouts (11 to 15 years), Cub Scouts (8 to 11 years) and Joey Scouts (5 to 8 years).

Aberdeen Scout Group has an existing Scout Hall built only 20 years ago in Abercairney Terrace and equipment for indoor and outdoor activities ready for use, and only needs volunteers (over 18) to be trained as Leaders and a Group Support Committee to recommence activities.

Scouts Australia is the largest youth development organisation in Australia with over 66,000 members across all states. It provides great opportunities for young people to develop social, physical and intellectual skills with new adventures and activities in Scouting programs.
