Bush Poets Feature at Special Breakfast at Scone Literary Festival

The Valley might be looking green, but the drought is far from over, and our local farmers still need our support, so the Scone Literary Festival organisers have planned a very special event to help out our drought-affected community.

Sunday November 11 will feature a Bush Poets Breakfast with all proceeds raised going to the local drought appeal. The BBQ will be cooked by Upper Hunter Shire Council Mayor Cr. Wayne Bedgood assisted by a bunch of local volunteers.

The entertainment and focus of the Breakfast will be four, acclaimed local bush poets who have been performing very successfully up and down the Valley for many years. Known as the 'Awesome Foursome of Bush Poetry' the group comprises of Tim McLoughlin, Sally Mitchell, Tom Parry and Greg Scott.

Benefit concerts for our farmers

Dashville is putting on two big nights of live music, raising money and hopes for our drought-stricken farmers in NSW. Friday 2nd November at The Muswellbrook Hotel from 6pm and then an even bigger splay Saturday 3rd November at The Terminus Hotel in Quirindi, kicking off at 2pm.

Dashville, the boutique music festival promoter behind events The Gum Ball and Dashville Skyline, kick-started an initiative in early September called Make it Rain, a double CD, 40-song compilation album, full to the brim with world-class alt-country and Americana music, including artists such as The Waifs, C.W. Stoneking, The Bushwackers and William Crighton. All the songs on the album were donated by artists and a lot of other suppliers kicked into make it all happen within an incredible short period of time.

'I'm still surprised that we managed to get clearance from 40 different bands/labels in just under two weeks to make this all happen.

Dire times calls for drastic measures and we pulled a rabbit out of a hat with this one! It's a credit to all involved!' says Matt Johnston from Dashville

All proceeds from Make it Rain are donated to the Country Women's Association of NSW, who are assisting farmers with money for food and other living expenses.

Performing at the two special concerts will be Ben Leece, Jason Walker, Adam Young, Lyle Dennis, Magpie Diaries, and Katie Brianna.

"Quirindi was a great place to grow up," says Ben Leece who hails from Quirindi. "There has always been a strong sense of community and pride of place. I knew it was bad, but it probably hadn't really hit home until I saw the faces of the people in the 4 Corners story. It's easy for those of us living in metropolitan or coastal areas to keep rural problems at arms length, but seeing the hurt in the faces of these men and women strong, resilient parents of kids I grew up with got me. The situation could be nothing short of dire for these guys to even think about putting their hand up. Make It Rain won't fix the problem, but if we can give a little bit, let folks know that there are people thinking of them and put on a good night without worrying about money, if nothing more than a distraction for a day or so, then hopefully that means something."

Acclaimed concert pianist

Arseny Tarasevich-Nikolaev (pictured) studied piano from the age of four and at nine performed for the first time with the Bryansk Philharmonic Orchestra.

He is currently studying with Professor Sergey Dorensky at the Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky Moscow State Conservatory. Arseny won the 5th International Scriabin Piano Competition, was awarded 2nd prize and special prize for the performance of Russian music at the Cleveland International Piano Competition, 2nd prize at the Grieg International Piano Competition in Bergen and also at the Sydney International Piano Competition.

He has toured in Germany, France, UK, Italy, Spain, Switzerland, Norway, Lithuania, Poland, Israel, Macedonia, China, Japan, USA, Mexico and other countries.

Arseny will be performing at the Upper Hunter Conservatorium of Music on Friday 26th October, from 7.30pm. Tickets available through trybooking.com/UWBO $30 Adult | $20 Concession | $10 Student.

Denise Faulkner - Garden Party

26th October till 25th November

Faulkner's watercolours will be delivered to Michael Reid Murrurundi gallery on Saturday 20th October. Watercolours now selling.

Pastels workshop

The next Scone Arts and Crafts workshop will be pastels, with Penelope Gilbert-Ng. This workshop will be held on Saturday 27th and Sunday, 28th October from 9.30 until 4.30 at Scone Arts and Crafts Hall, Kingdon Street Scone. The subject will be 'Figures in the Landscape'.

The workshop synopsis is to look at students' own images of people in the landscape. Imagination is the limit! The student needs to source their own images (no images from the internet, books or magazines). The figures can be in the distance or close up. Penelope will show the group how to compose the composition doing thumbnails, and draw it up on the paper, underwash with watercolour, and pastel application choices.

The cost for this workshop will be $140 for members and $150 for non members.

Please bring along something to share for morning teas and lunches. Tea and coffee will be provided.

A $50 fee to reserve your place is essential. Payment can be made by direct deposit.

Say 'thanks' with a 2019 Australia Day Award nomination

Nominations have opened for the 2019 Upper Hunter Shire Australia Day Awards. Each year dozens of individuals and organisations are recognised for their achievements and contributions to the community.

Nominating is a simple way to thank and acknowledge generous and inspiring people.

Upper Hunter Shire Citizen of the Year 2018 Linda Gant of Cassilis said there are many citizens worthy of being nominated for an Australia Day Award.

"Being nominated for an Australia Day Award, that acknowledged my work co-ordinating the catering for the BlazeAid Camp at Cassilis for four months, was a great honour," she said.

"Besides being a great honour for me personally, I felt it allowed others who had been involved in the BlazeAid Camp to be recognised for their efforts as well. "

Awards will be presented at Australia Day celebrations in Scone, Cassilis (Merriwa awards), Aberdeen and Murrurundi on Saturday 26 January 2019, and all nominees are recognised during the ceremonies for their achievements and contributions.

Awards available in each of the four districts are:

- Community Group of the Year.
- Citizen of the Year awarded to a person or a couple, who are inspirational role models and have made significant contributions to the community
- Young Citizen of the Year is open to a resident under the age of 25 years (as at 26 January 2018)
- Achiever and Young Achiever are open to residents who are inspirational achievers in any field including sport, culture, environment, professional or schooling.
- In Merriwa only, there are also awards for Sustainability in Business and Environmental Achievement.

The Upper Hunter Shire Australia Day Citizen of the Year and Young Citizen, are chosen from the town winners.

Nomination forms are available at all Upper Hunter Shire Council Administration Offices, Shire Libraries, and they can be downloaded or submitted online from Council's website at <http://upperhunter.nsw.gov.au/our-shire/events/australia-day.aspx>

Nominations close Friday 9 November 2018.

Pass the Hat community event

Donations from local businesses are bringing Singleton Council within reach of its fundraising target ahead of the Pass the Hat community event, supported by Hunter Valley Operations on Saturday 27 October 2018, with all proceeds to be donated to Rural Aid's Buy a Bale program.

A total of $6,000 has been raised so far towards the $9,500 goal, which will buy a semi-trailer load of hay and transportation.

Businesses are banding together to support the cause, with a $2,000 donation from the Yancoal Mount Thorley Warkworth site donation committee and other contributions from:

Hunter Valley Glass and Windscreens; Singleton Mazda; Hunter Valley Elite; Around Hermitage; Heights Pet Hospital and Shaddock Real Estate.

Significant in-kind support has also been received from Robs Stage, Coates Hire Singleton, St Johns Ambulance and Kirkwood's Produce. Food truck, winery and brewery event fees will also be donated to Rural Aid.

Funds are also set to flood in from Singleton Council's staff fundraising day ahead of the Pass the Hat community event.

Mayor of Singleton, Cr Sue Moore said she was hoping for a big crowd to come out to enjoy free entertainment by VanderAa on the Civic Green, with food trucks, cheese, wine and boutique beers available for purchase on the night, as well as contribute to the cause.

She said thousands of families had benefited from Rural Aid's Buy a Bale program, which provides support to farmers in need by delivering hay for cattle feed as well as other essential items.

"There are residents in our community who have experienced first-hand the impact the drought is having on farming communities," she said.

"We at Council feel a keen responsibility to make a tangible difference to people in our community, and what could be more important than supporting the farmers who put food on our tables?"

"We are really excited to be within reach of our goal and the support we have seen from local businesses and corporations has been exceptional.

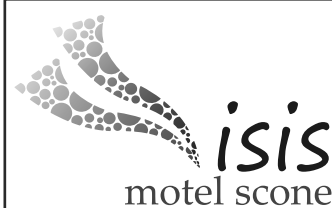

"Council is very proud to join forces with Hunter Valley Operations to produce Pass the Hat, which will be a great night of free entertainment for people of all ages.

"We're hoping to see families come along and set up a rug on the lawn, buy some dinner from the array food trucks and sample some Hunter Valley cheese, wine and beer on offer, with staff 'passing the hat' so our community can donate.

"There will also be an opportunity for people to access support and assistance on the night, with representatives on hand from Rural Aid, Rural Resilience Program, Salvation Army and Local Land Services."

Pass the Hat will be held on Saturday 27 October 2018 from 6pm to 10pm on the Civic Green. Donations can be made on the night, and corporate pledges can be made to Council's Strategy and Engagement team.
